They Slide Through Senate Without Single 'No' Vote

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Major money bills chopping more than $13 million from House approved figures slid through the Missouri Senate today without a single opposing vote.

In one-two-three order the Senate passed the bills without debate in a fast 20-minute display of unanimity. Veteran observers said they never had seen anything like it.

Senate Group Hears Local Hog Fanciers

They Claim Better Facilities Needed At the Fairgrounds

JEFFERSON CITY (MPA)—About 35 hog fanciers appeared before the Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday night in support of the $200,000 appropriation for the completion of the hog barn at the State Fair Grounds.

The committee is considering a $19,000,000 omnibus bill that wraps up loose ends of the state budget. The bill has already been passed by the house.

Jack Kroeck, Jefferson City, superintendent of the swine division of the State Fair, told the committee that the unfinished hog barn at the fairgrounds is overcrowded and lacks sanitary facilities. He said there was space for only 1,500 hogs to be exhibited and at least 2,000 entries are received.

Kroeck said the hog barn is used every year by several hundred exhibitors "at least as many as members of the legislature."

"What would you do," he asked on toilet and one cold shower for the use of all the members of the legislature?"

Kroeck said the $200,000 appropriation would finish the hog building which is only three-quarters complete. He said it would also furnish additional toilet facilities and make the barn more comfortable.

"We can get along all right," he said, pointing to the crowd of hog fanciers, "but our hogs get sick when we have to leave them in a tent outside the barn." Kroeck said at least three high-priced hogs are lost each year from overcrowding at the fair building.

Kroeck said the supporters of the hog barn appropriation who were present this evening are all exhibitors at the fair. He said representatives were present from Bowling Green, Troy, California, Tipton, Brunswick, Corso, Mexico, Nelson, St. Elizabeth, Menden and Centralia.

The senate committee is also considering five other appropriations for the State Fair, which include: $78,500 for remodeling the race track; $60,000 for rewiring the home economics building, 4-H exhibit building, hog barn, commercial building agricultural building and women's building; $55,000 for completing the sheep pavilion; $40,000 for purchase of additional land southeast of the fairgrounds; and $16,000 for remodeling the show horse warmup ring.

Coley Ervin, fair superintendent, and John Sam Williamson, state commissioner of agriculture, presented the other appropriation requests to the committee. A $750,000 appropriation for construction of a youth building at the fairgrounds was knocked out by the House of Representatives. The building would have been used during the off season as a highway patrol academy.

The senate committee took no action on the omnibus bill Wednesday night but was expected to trim the bill closely.

Reports Local Fallout Of First Nuclear Test Is 'Almost Negligible'

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan said today initial reports from Britain's first H-bomb explosion indicate local fallout was "almost negligible."

He also told the House of Commons the explosion will strengthen Britain's hand in further international discussions on nuclear disarmament or control. British papers earlier said it restored Britain's independence of the United States and increased her stature as a world power.

Britain fired her first H-bomb yesterday in the Christmas Island area of the Pacific despite world wide protests—especially from the Japanese—that its fallout might endanger world health. The bomb was dropped from a great height over the water wastes from a British bomber.

Delays Senate Hearing

Gessert Sends Word To Rackets Group He Will Surrender 'Later' to Subpoena

WASHINGTON (AP)—Elusive Norman Gessert, one of the Dave Beck family of cousins, came to Washington today. But instead of going before the Senate rackets committee immediately he sent word he would surrender "later" to its subpoena.

The committee had been waiting for an hour for Gessert's appearance when it received this word.

Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.), as temporary chairman of the committee, said he was advised that Gessert was closeted somewhere in Washington with a lawyer, who had not yet decided whether to serve as Gessert's counsel.

The senator and his brother, chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy, declined to name the lawyer. They said they were not sure themselves just where Gessert was meeting him.

Gessert, served with a subpoena in Washington state, arrived here by plane shortly after 11 a.m.

Members of the committee, which Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) heads, had assembled at the hearing room, planning to question Gessert on the whereabouts of other missing witnesses; whether he had deliberately eluded its process servers; and his financial dealings with companies which profited from business transactions with Beck's Teamsters Union.

Then counsel Kennedy, after having been called to a telephone, reported to his brother. Also on hand were Sens. Goldwater (R-Ariz.) and Ervin (D-NC).

Sen. Kennedy then announced that the hearing will be postponed.

Follows Purchase of Water Company

Sedalia Will Have a New Park Soon Near Old Covered Bridge

Sedalia is to have a new park, the Covered Bridge Park, according to John Vanderkamp, president of the park board. It is still in the planning stage and there must be much work done on it, said Vanderkamp, but the area near the old covered bridge southeast of Sedalia is a beautiful spot for a park.

The board of public works and the Sedalia park board are working together on this project, and although it will not be ready for this year it will be for next summer. As soon as the city purchased the Water Company, the two groups began to make plans to turn the area north of the covered bridge and on the east side of the road into a park. The ground is now being surveyed and it is believed that there are about ten acres. The area will be fenced in for the present while brush and dead trees are being removed and the park is being built. The fence will have a gate which will be kept locked until the park is ready to open.

The plans are for a circle drive through the park which will be a one-way drive, and from it at intervals will be gravelled parking spaces and areas for picnics, wieners roasts or steak fries, with ovens and picnic tables.

In the center of the park will be a large campfire circle built of rocks where groups wanting to have campfire outings may do so. Sanitary restrooms will be built in the park and it will be lighted throughout.

The section is filled with natural beauty, with an abundance of large shade trees and, in addition, the park will also be landscaped with shrubs and flowers.

For many years the people of this community have had picnics and outings at the covered bridge, frequently using this area which was always kept attractive by the Water Company.

The park board, said Vandekamp will make every effort to have the covered bridge preserved. It is one of the very few left in the state.

They Learn the Hard Way

"OPERATION LITTERBUG"—Cleaning up six miles of highway right-of-way was the unusual sentence imposed on four men who were arrested at Harrisonville, Mo., for dumping spoiled watermelons along a road. In lieu of $75 fines for each, Magistrate Judge C. J. Smith had the men pick up trash and beer cans under supervision of two highway patrolmen. When they had finished, the semi-trailer truck was half full. The men were Elton Crawford and Gerome Carter, both of Holcomb, Mo.; Junior Proffer, Campbell, Mo., and Eddie Kivitt, Kansas City, Mo. ## Trotter Is Candidate For State President Of Young Democrats

The 11th Congressional District Young Democrats will have one of their own members as a candidate for the office of state president of the organization, when the group meets in June for their state convention at Jefferson City.

Jerry Trotter of Sedalia has announced his candidacy for the office, according to Lawrence Daniels of Warsaw, 11th district Young Democrat chairman.

Now serving his second term as assessor of Pettis County, Trotter is a former Sedalia police magistrate.

He is 35, married and the father of four children. During service in World War II, he lost both legs under enemy shell fire.

Active in Pettis County Democratic circles and in Pettis County's Young Democrats' organization, Trotter was mentioned two years ago as a possible candidate for lieutenant-governor of Missouri. He is an officer of the Pettis County Young Democrats' Club.

Gen. Schriever Will Arrive Here Friday

Begins a Busy Day With Appearance At Smith-Cotton

Maj. Gen. Bernard A. Schriever, chief of the Air Force ballistic missile program, arrives in Sedalia tonight from Inglewood, Calif., for a busy day on Friday. The general will begin an early schedule by appearing at Smith-Cotton High School during the Recognition Assembly.

Immediately after the assembly, Gen. Schriever will give a talk to the students of the high school. Also invited to hear him are the seniors from Sacred Heart and Hubbard High Schools.

In the afternoon, in company with United States Senator Stuart Symington and Mrs. Symington, Gen. Schriever and Mrs. Schriever will visit the Whiteman Air Force Base as guests of Col. A. J. Beck, commander of the 340th Bomb Wing, and Mrs. Beck, and Col. Richard Kline, commander of the Base Group, and Mrs. Kline.

On Friday night at Smith-Cotton High School, the Armed Forces Day Banquet is to begin promptly at 6:45 p.m. Abe Rosenthal, accompanied by Mrs. Edythe Ross at the organ, will lead the singing of the National Anthem, following the invocation by the Rev. Edward R. Sims, rector of the Calvary Episcopal Church.

Vernon Rodick, president of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, will open the meeting. Introductions of various honored guests, communities participating in the affair, will be made.

Sen. Symington will introduce Gen. Schriever. Acting as master-of-ceremonies will be D. Kelly Scruton, director in charge of the military affairs and aviation division of the Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting is being held to honor Armed Forces Day, and supported by all the communities in the Whiteman Air Force Base area. Delegations will be in attendance from Windsor, Warrensburg, Clinton, LaMonte, Knob Noster, Sweet Springs, Marshall, Jefferson City, Smithton, Warsaw, Green Ridge and Sedalia.

A few tickets remain and may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce before 10 a.m. Friday. Anyone who has tickets and finds he cannot attend is asked to contact the Chamber so the tickets may be turned over to some person who desires to attend.

It is anticipated more than 550 people will attend the function.

Heavy Rains Are Seen For State Thru Friday

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Missouri is in for some heavy rains. Precipitation, heavy this morning over most of Kansas, was moving eastward. By 6 a.m. some western Missouri points reported rains. Carthage had 1.22 inches in a period of a little over two hours. Sedalia had .98, Nevada .76 and Butler .17.

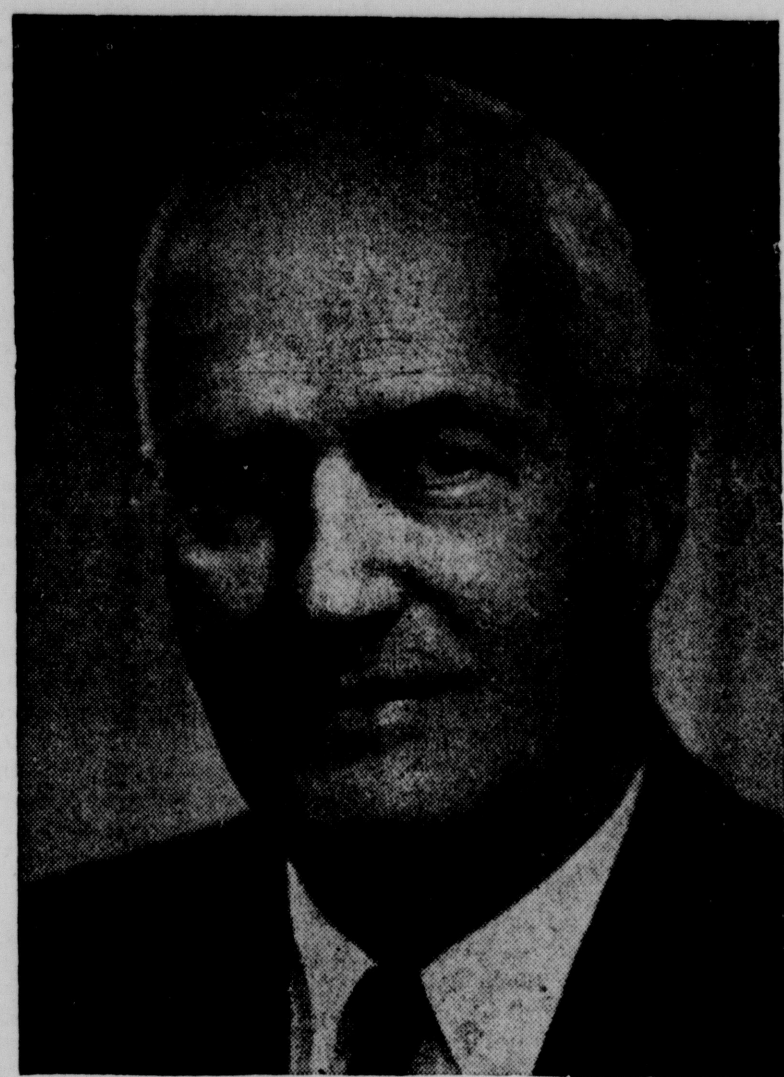

Showers and thunderstorms will continue this afternoon, tonight and Friday, with showers being locally heavy in the western part of the state. Thunderstorms, the weather bureau said, might be locally severe this afternoon and tonight in the southwest.

Group Recommends Conservative Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee recommended today that the House use its budget-cutting ax sparingly on its own funds for the fiscal year starting July 1.

It approved a bill allotting $78,470,285 to operate the House and related agencies during the next year. The House will debate the measure next week. The Senate will add its own funds when it considers the bill later on.

Claims Soil Bank Cut Will Boost Surpluses

Russell L. Dearthmont

Davis Wins Directorship

Board Picks Dearthmont New MoPac President

ST. LOUIS (AP)—An insurgent group landed one man on the Missouri Pacific Railroad's board of directors early today after a tense, two-day proxy counting skirmish.

The directors immediately elected Russell L. Dearthmont to succeed Paul J. Neff as president of the railroad.

Dearthmont is a 66-year-old St. Louis attorney. He advised the bankruptcy trustee who controlled the Missouri Pacific during 23 years it was in receivership, becoming vice president and general counsel of the reorganized company which emerged in March of 1956.

T. C. Davis, New York banker, won election to the 15-man board of directors despite the efforts of management to keep him off. Davis formerly was chairman of the board of the Missouri Pacific and he is a friend of Robert R. Young, the peppery Allegheny Corp. financial wizard who won the classic fight for control of the New York Central in 1955.

When the Missouri Pacific management declined to nominate Davis for reelection to the board this year he organized the opposition movement and sought to get four of the five seats at stake.

Management's candidates for the five seats were Abraham W. Turner, Baltimore business executive; James Lee Johnson, vice president of International Shoe Co.; James M. Kemper, chairman of the board of Commerce Trust Co. of Kansas City, and Robert H. Craft and Isaac B. Grainger, New York bankers.

Grainger lost out to Davis. Waring is new to the directorate. Johnson, Kemper and Craft are holdovers.

Davis and his group contended the Missouri Pacific management is "old and lackadaisical." They campaigned for a "watchdog" on the board.

Management countered with a charge that Davis and his associates were trying to capture control of the 10,000-mile railroad system which serves 11 states in the Southwest.

Benson Tears Into Decision By the House

Says Action Against His Yearling Plan Is 'False Economy'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson told House members today that the vote by the full House to kill a big part of the soil bank program carries the threat of more costly farm surpluses.

Benson, as a witness before the House Agriculture Committee, had intended primarily to urge entirely new farm legislation.

But in a late addition to his prepared testimony he tore into the move, voted 192-187 by the House yesterday, to cut off the ¾ billion dollar acreage reserve part of the soil bank program after this year.

Benson said the action against his yearling plan represented "false economy" and amounted to prejudgment based on insufficient trial.

"If the acreage reserve is not permitted to function for 1958 crops, there is every likelihood that surpluses will pile up still further, rather than diminish," Benson said.

He added that if land retired into the soil bank this year is forced back into production next year, "the cost of government price supports 'will in all probability be greater than would have been the cost of the acreage reserve for 1958 basic crops.'"

"Surpluses will again pile up at the expense of our taxpayers," Benson said House "prejudgment" was based on partial evaluation of the soil bank as it operated last year.

"Last year the Department of Agriculture publicly warned that due to the lateness of passage of the soil bank law (Agricultural Act of 1956), the acreage reserve could not be expected to have its intended effect in full for 1956 crops and that administrative problems were bound to arise," Benson went on.

Benson said charges have been made that the soil bank was costly and wasteful last year.

"If that is so, why was the Department of Agriculture forced to put it into effect against the departments recommendations?" Mr. Benson asked.

Ruth Ann Bock, Wilbur Kirchner Exchange Vows

Mrs. Wilbur L. Kirchner

The marriage of Miss Ruth Bock and Wilbur L. Kirchner was solemnized at the Saint George's Catholic Church in Afton, St. Louis County, on April 27. The double ring ceremony was performed by Msgr. Mark Ebner.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Bock, formerly of Ferguson, and now of Pilot Grove, wore a sleeveless, full-length gown of nylon organza, princess style fashioned with an empire bodice of lace. A circlet of seed pearls secured her short illusion veil and a bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley, centered with a large white orchid, completed her costume.

Mrs. Roy E. Simpson, of Ferguson, served as matron of honor, and Mrs. C. F. Stimac and Miss Mary Lou Fitzgibbons, both of St. Louis, were bridesmaids. They all wore light blue princess style gowns, with matching hair bands. Mr. Kirchner had as best man Walter Richelman.

Groomsmen were Charles R. Walter and D. Robert Downey, Gene Smith and Jack Wheat served as ushers.

After a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate families at Stan Musial and Biggie's, a reception was held in the Boulevard Room of the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel.

The bride attended Incarnate Word Academy, St. Louis and Mt. St. Scholastica's College, Atchison, Kan.

Mr. Kirchner attended Missouri University and received his degree in industrial engineering from the Washington University. He is a member of Kappa Alpha social fraternity.

The couple have returned from a wedding trip and are now at home at 9021 Mathilda, Afton.

Scientist Finds Way To Reduce Evaporation

MELBOURNE (AP)—An Australian scientist has found a way to cut down evaporation from reservoirs.

In some areas 18 gallons of water is lost by evaporation for every 20 gallons used.

The method developed reportedly slows evaporation 37 per cent by maintaining a film of cetyl alcohol a 20-millionth of an inch thick.

In a 14-week test in New South Wales, water saved on a 930-acre reservoir was reckoned at 200 million gallons. This is equivalent to six weeks of the city's normal summer water consumption.

The cost varies from 1 to 6 cents a thousand gallons.

Keeps Up Reputation

WESTON, Mass. (AP)—Omerio C. Catan's reputation as "Mr. First" still holds good.

The 43-year-old resident of Teaneck, N. J., was the first paying customer when the 123-mile Massachusetts Turnpike opened at 12:01 a. m. today.

Catan claims he was the first paying motorist on the New York Turnpike, the Chesapeake Bay Bridge, the Garden State Parkway in New Jersey and the George Washington Bridge across the Hudson in New York.

Ike's Appeal Faces First Senate Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower counted only 14 Republican senators on his side today in the first Senate test of his nationwide appeal against sharp cuts in his budget.

Twenty-three Senate Republicans, including the top four party leaders, joined with 38 Democrats last night in slashing appropriations for the U. S. Information Agency $33,800,000 under his request.

One Democrat, Sen. Neuberger of Oregon, supported Eisenhower, who a few hours earlier followed up his TV-radio speech Tuesday night with a new defense of his budget at a news conference. Eisenhower said it would be a "mistake" to cut USIA heavily.

The Senate went on from that 61-15 defeat for the administration to pass by a 77-0 roll call vote a State-Justice Department money bill slashed a total of $102,564,000 under the Eisenhower budget estimates. It was $714,500 under House allowances. The money is for use in the fiscal year starting July 1.

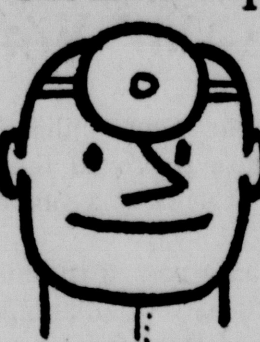

Adopted by voice vote was an amendment, recommended by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), Senate majority leader, which would deny use of any USIA funds for any overseas information service in competition with press associations or other private news agencies.

The bill went back to the House for adjustment of differences with committee recommendation that the USIA be turned back to the State Department through separate legislation.

British Papers Say H-Blast Aids Stature

LONDON (AP)—British newspapers declared today Britain's first hydrogen bomb test had restored the nation's independence of the United States and increased its stature as a world power.

Asian nations quickly expressed regret at the blast, exploded yesterday in the Christmas Island area of the Pacific. But U. S. officials welcomed the news as contributing to Allied strength by making Britain the world's third full-fledged nuclear power, along with Russia and the United States.

Reports from Washington said, however, the British H-blast was considered certain to result in new pressure on both the British and American governments to call off future atomic weapons tests.

Such demands were renewed at once in Japan and Ceylon, where government officials asserted it was regrettable that Britain had gone ahead with the tests in the face of widespread opposition.

The British press generally assumed the test was successful although a terse announcement from the ministry of supply said merely that the "first explosion of a nuclear device in the present series took place." The ministry added that scientific records are being collected "for accurate evaluation" and that a "further statement will be made in due course."

The announcement did not give any details nor pinpoint the site of the explosion in the Christmas Island area 1,400 miles south of Honolulu, saying only the device was exploded at a "high altitude."

Other authoritative sources said the device tested was an H-bomb fired after being dropped from a four-engine Valiant jet bomber.

There was no indication how many more test explosions would be held or when they would be set off. The number has been estimated at from three to five.

Grand Jury Issues Warrants in Magazine Criminal Libel Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Warrants are out for the arrest of "several persons" indicted by the county grand jury following its investigation of a criminal libel case against Confidential and other magazines.

Dep. Dist. Atty. William Ritz used the phrase "several persons" when he was asked yesterday how many were named in the secret indictments. He said indictments also were returned against several corporations.

But—since none of the warrants had been served, and the indictments are supposed to remain secret until they are—he declined to give any names.

Emergency Admission Of Hungarians Will Be Limited In Future

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government says emergency admission of Hungarian refugees to the United States will be limited in the future to special cases.

Atty. Gen. Brownell, who disclosed the policy yesterday, mentioned as special cases applicants who would be united with their families, those with special skills, or those whose entry would be "in the national interest."

Children Left Orphans Get New Parents

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Things are a little crowded these days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert N. Davis now that the size of the family suddenly has doubled.

"We couldn't be happier, even if it means looking for about a four-bedroom house," said Dr. Davis as he tried to get his arms around four children.

The recent additions are three Dykes orphans, Gordon Andrew, 3, Bradley Scott, 2, and Ramona Kay, 5 months, from Trenton, Mo.

Their father, Fred Dykes, shot and killed his estranged wife, her mother, and himself at Trenton on April 10.

Dr. and Mrs. Davis are from Trenton. He is an instructor in dentistry at the University of Kansas Medical Center and has a practice here. They have an 11-year-old daughter, Chata.

"There were about 50 couples who wanted to adopt one or two of the children," Mrs. Davis said, "but none wanted the whole family. We had our minds set from the beginning to try and get all three and it was the happiest thing that ever happened to us."

Adoption proceedings are pending in the Grundy County Circuit Court at Trenton. Dr. and Mrs. Davis have dedicated themselves to the task of seeing that the youngsters have a normal childhood.

Chata shares in the happiness over the new situation.

Mrs. Davis says her main problem is learning to buy enough groceries.

"Those boys surely like to eat," she explained. "I just keep cooking as long as they can put it away."

Press Group for Okay On Flood Control Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Civil Functions Appropriations subcommittee was pressed by Missouri's two senators yesterday to approve funds for flood control for the year beginning July 1.

Sen. Hennings (D), who said he was asking only for continuing planning or work on urgently needed projects, listed Bear Creek Reservoir, Canton flood protection, Cape Girardeau, Reach No 2, Fabius River drainage district, Pomme De Terre Reservoir, St. Louis flood control project, Table Rock Reservoir, Missouri River agricultural levees, Missouri River channel stabilization from Kansas City to the mouth of the stream and Kansas' Tuttle Creek Reservoir.

Budget recommended appropriations for Canton, St. Louis, Table Rock, Bear Creek and Fabius River district levees were urged by Sen. Symington (D).

June 3-4—H leaders' camp, Bob White.

Tuesday, June 3, 8 p.m.—4-H leaders council meeting.

Wednesday, June 4, 7:30 p.m.—Farm and Home Planning recognition dinner at Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Monday, June 10—Apprentice Home Agent starts eight weeks training.

June 12-15—4-H Club Week at Columbia.

Completes Visits

The Smithton Extension Club discussed the possibility of assisting the 4-H club by serving refreshments at a local achievement program. It is a good idea for a 4-H club to have a local event of this kind. The extension club members and their families will have a chance to see the fine work of the 4-H club members. Other extension clubs might like to sponsor an event like this in their club.

The South Abell Extension Club is helping its 4-H club by donating money toward the care and repair of their local community building. This club also observed National Home Demonstration Week by serving green and yellow vegetables in a salad and a casserole dish as a part of their noon luncheon.

The Thursday Extension Club visit completed the Home Agent's visits to clubs for this year. This group is planning a health program where they will learn about the care of the heart. The plastic heart which is available at the Boonslick Library will be demonstrated by Miss Esther Meisenheimer, district public health nurse. Several other clubs should plan to work it into their schedule of club meetings.

Dramatics Officers

The annual election meeting of the County Dramatics Group met May 13. The play festival held in March was reviewed and the group voted to hold another play festival in 1958.

Officers elected were: president, Mrs. Lewis Hammond Jr.; vice-president, Mrs. Eugene Brockman; secretary, Mrs. Hubert Finley; treasurer, Mrs. Paul Read; reporter and publicity chairman, Mrs. Frank Breon. The next meeting of this group will be Saturday, Sept. 28.

Leaders Meeting

Forty leaders representing 25 extension clubs attended the all day leaders training meeting Wednesday, May 14. Furniture and floor refinishing was the subject discussed by Miss Alice Mae Alexander, home management specialist from the University.

A part of the discussion centered around refinishing and cleaning of furniture.

Refinishing old furniture, and finishing new, is a hobby that many people enjoy. Revealing the beauty of the color and grain of the wood is one of the pleasures of refinishing. However, there are certain cases where it may be wiser not to refinish.

Furniture is valuable if it is well constructed of good wood, not merely if it is old. Refinishing furniture, whether it is an old article or a modern piece, requires time, energy, patience, and some expense. A piece of furniture worth reclaiming is made of good wood, is well designed, well constructed and serves a practical use in the home. If the piece has these essentials, the final results will be worth the time and effort required for refinishing. If not, it might be wiser to use other furniture rather than trying to refinish the piece that does not meet these standards.

Furniture has a smooth, hard finish, it may need only cleaning instead of refinishing.

General Cleaning—A good, general cleaner for furniture may be made at home by mixing together the following ingredients: one tablespoon turpentine, three table-spoons boiled linseed oil, and one quart hot water.

The turpentine and boiled linseed oil can be purchased at most paint or hardware stores. This mixture must be kept hot as you use it. Using a clean cloth, wet it in the solution and rub it on one section of the furniture at a time. Then polish with a dry clean cloth. In this mixture the turpentine serves to cut the dirt while the

Green Ridge School Holds Annual Banquet For Juniors, Seniors

The Junior-Senior banquet of the Green Ridge High School was held Thursday evening, May 9, in the school gym. There are 20 seniors in the 1957 graduating class.

The juniors and their sponsor, Mrs. Frank Hughes and co-sponsor Harvey Wadleigh, arranged the setting for the banquet which was Oriental. The Oriental theme was also carried out in the program.

Two lovely decorated folding fans were opened and arranged oil lubricates and polishes the wood.

This mixture should not be used on a shellac finish as the water may cause it to spot or turn white. A worn shellac finish should usually be removed, and the article refinished. To determine whether or not the finish is shellac, rub a small area on the underside of the piece with denatured alcohol. If the finish is shellac, it will soften. When your furniture has been thoroughly cleaned, protect it with a good polish or wax.

This group made plans to present to their club on future plans for this lesson. Be listening for their report to the club.

with an oriental figurine vase which held flowers, formed the centerpieces for the tables. The mint cups were miniature oriental parasols.

Paper streamers of red, yellow, blue and green formed the walls which were vertical. An oriental garden in which trees and plants were blooming and a simulated may pole formed the background. The mothers of the juniors served the banquet.

Dr. Nathan Weiner Spends His Time Collecting Dust

NEW YORK (AP)—Ever hear of a professional dust collector? Well, there is one. He's Dr. Nathan Weiner, friend of the American housewife, who collects two tons of house dust a year, purifies it and concentrates it.

The concentrate is then used to immunize hundreds of thousands of persons allergic to dust.

Take it from Dr. Weiner, a former Harvard faculty chemist who now is research director for Endo Laboratories, the problem of house dust isn't to be sneezed at.

"About 70 per cent of people who are sensitive to house dust," he said, "it can be positively dangerous to them."

Some 16 million Americans are allergic to one or more substances.

"Allergy is as nearly a universal affliction as any I can think of," said Dr. Weiner. "It is a bond that links mankind."

"I doubt if there is a large percentage of people who are allergic to a degree to one substance or another," he said.

"There even have been cases of women who were found to be allergic to their husband's dandruff."

"House dust is one of the commonest cause of allergies," he said, "at least as common as any other well-known agent, such as goldenrod and ragweed pollen during the hay fever season."

"The housewife usually thinks of dust as dirt—the particles of soot and ash that float into her home."

"That is not dust to us. The dust we are after is decomposed proteins from the breakdown of wool, cotton and other organic materials in the home—such as pillows and upholstery stuffing."

The foreign proteins in this dust, breathed into the body, cause the allergic reaction.

Dr. Weiner gets his dust from mattress manufacturers and upholstery firms. If you have any idea of sending your boy through college by selling Dr. Weiner the dust from your old sofa, abandon the thought.

"As of now," he said, "we are satisfied with our present sources of supply."

The 4,000 pounds of rough dust

he uses each year go through eight purification stages and emerge as 10 to 20 pounds of pure house dust concentrate, enough for two million inoculation shots. The stuff no longer really then is a dust, but a brown syrupy mixture that looks like molasses.

"No matter how dust-free a woman keeps her own home," said Dr. Weiner, "she can't control the dust in other places she goes, such as restaurants, movies, hotels and other people's homes."

"The only other solution I know would be to walk around in a space helmet."

Last Hubbard Activities Begin Friday

The closing of school activities for Hubbard will begin Friday evening at 6:30 with the athletes being honored with a banquet to be served by the Hubbard PTA. Dwight Reed, director of athletics at Lincoln University will be the speaker.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., the Rev. J. E. Erickson, pastor of Ward Memorial Baptist Church, will deliver the Baccalaureate address.

Monday afternoon at 2 p.m. the seventh grade will sponsor a Promotion Tea with their parents as honored guests.

At 6 p.m. the Seniors will sponsor a reception with their parents as guests. At 7:30 the Senior Class will present its play, "Who Killed Aunt Caroline?"

Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. will be Senior Class Night.

On Friday evening at 8 p.m. Attorney Raymond W. Cannon of Minneapolis, Minn., will deliver the commencement address to the graduates of Hubbard High School.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—In 5 or 10 years, the president of the American Osteopathic Assn. predicts, the federal government will be picking up the tab for medical treatment given elderly people.

Dr. Robert D. McCullough of Tulsa, Okla., said in an interview that he doesn't think much of the idea, "but that's the trend."

"Socialized medicine—not really good wording (since) it will be different than in England—will be put into practice in the same way as Social Security at first," he said. "That is, the government will pay the medical bills of all the aged."

Presley in Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A porcelain tooth cap has put Elvis Presley in the hospital.

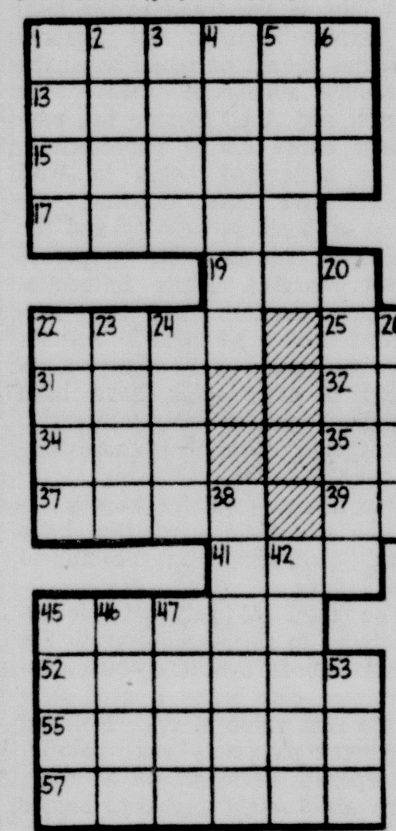

The singer swallowed the cap Tuesday during a film dance number at MGM. It passed through the windpipe and into the lung.

It bothered him yesterday, so he was taken to Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, where X-rays revealed its location. A doctor retrieved the cap, but a spokesman said Presley is expected to be out of action for another day or two.

Four Are Injured In Atomic Center Chemical Blast

BROOKHAVEN, N. Y. (AP)—Four persons were injured, one seriously, in a chemical explosion yesterday at Brookhaven National Laboratory—one of the nation's principal atomic research centers.

Immediately after the blast, Dr. Leland Haworth, director of Brookhaven, said no nuclear radiation was involved.

The blast occurred in a building known as the "hot" laboratory to test the use of compounds of bromine and fluorine in dissolving unirradiated natural uranium.

The building is adjacent to another structure housing the laboratory's 25-million-dollar reactor, which was not damaged.

Thirty-five persons were in the "hot" laboratory, made up of a series of chambers separated by enormously thick doors.

Six other persons, exposed to corrosive acid vapors during rescue operations, were given medical attention.

Seriously injured was Richard Johnson, 30, Baldwin, N.Y. He was hospitalized with severe burns of the face, eyes and body.

Others suffering burns, but sent home after treatment, were: Leroy Jefferson, 45, Bellport, N.Y.

Dublin Mayor Ends 2 Month Visit Here

NEW YORK (AP)—The Jewish lord mayor of Dublin, tired but happy, has ended a two-month visit to the United States.

Mayor Robert Briscoe took off for home last night on a KLM Dutch airliner captained by his son Abraham.

Briscoe said he made at least three speeches every day in his tour of 48 U. S. cities—except in Boston, where he gave 36 talks in two days.

Briscoe said Americans are not hard-boiled or cold individuals and that "they hope, just as we do, that the world will become a better place to live in."

Bob Feindt, 33, Lake Ronkonkoma, N.Y. and Walter Kalinowski, 27, Brookhaven.

Haworth said physical damage to the plant was small but that corrosive effects of the acid were yet to be determined, as was the cause of the explosion.

Meteor Flash Sighted Over Three States

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A brilliant meteor flash was seen over St. Louis, portions of southeast Missouri and southern Illinois Tuesday night.

A St. Louis motorist told Edwin E. Friton, regional director of the American Meteor Society, that he was almost blinded by the flash.

An airlines pilot said he saw the meteor from his plane over Vandalia, Ill. He compared it to the light of a white phosphorous flare.

Patron of a drive-in movie near Kennett, Mo., said they saw an explosion-like flash followed by a fiery trail.

The flash was also sighted in Sedalia by Dave Routsong, 1612 West 11th, and K. E. Tippie, 904 South Arlington, about 10:30 p. m. They said the flare had the appearance of a fiery explosion, feared at first to be from an airplane.

The meteor also was sighted at West Plains, Mo., by Civil Air Patrol members meeting at the City Airport. They said the meteor, apparently moving northeast, lighted up the sky similar to a flare. Word there was that it also had been sighted at Fort Smith, Ark., and at Joplin and Springfield.

Briton Will Go to H-Bomb Testing Area

NEW DELHI (AP)—British pacifist Harold Steele didn't get to the Christmas Island area before but he said today he still hopes to reach there in time to expose himself to radiation in protest against his country's nuclear tests.

Steele flew to Calcutta after an interview with Prime Minister Nehru and expected to reach Tokyo tomorrow. He hopes to get transportation in the Japanese danger area which Britain has proclaimed around Christmas Island during the series of test explosions.

The 63-year-old retired poultry farmer had planned originally to join a group of Japanese ships that were to sail in or around the danger zone, but the Japanese sponsors called off their "peace navy" plans.

Steele said he still is "determined to proceed to the British hydrogen bomb area in the Pacific and Britain has no authority under international law to declare areas of the high seas closed to shipping to conduct tests."

"Mr. Nehru wished me well and his whole bearing and attitude of speech showed he was not opposed to my mission," Steele said. He added that Nehru told him, "Reliance on the hydrogen bomb is no way out for mankind. The only cure for violence is love."

Windsor Gets Thrill, Horses In Runaway

A runaway team of horses raced across town Monday morning creating a sensation and leaving five damaged cars behind, according to a story in "Jimmy" Kirkpatrick's Windsor Review.

The mad dash the report relates, was halted when the horses ran into and on top of a car belonging to Roger Carper, 621 East Jackson Street. One horse stuck his foot through the right side of the windshield.

The horses belonged to Isaac J. Yoder and were stopped at the Farmers Elevator on the north end of Jackson Street. No one seems to know what frightened them, but all of a sudden they started east on Jackson as hard as they could run with the hayrack containing a milk can and small water tank clanking along behind.

Two cars parked across the street from the Superior Hatchery were the first to be sideswiped. Mrs. Lillie Sallee and her two grandchildren from Bowen, Route 3, were in the first car. Mrs. Sallee said she thought the car was going to turn over at first. Curtis Collins' car was the second.

A short distance east, the right front corner of the wagon hit the front headlight and fender of the Leon Welbern car, parked in front of his office. The jolt tore the front wheels of the wagon loose and the horses continued with them.

The wagon frame and rear wheels were left in the center of the street beside the Welbern car, with the water tank and milk can being thrown into the street.

Fortunately the busy intersection at Jackson and Main streets was clear at the time and the horses raced through it to the astonishment of the passersby attracted to the corner by the unusual noise.

A car belonging to Bob Hanger, parked at the side of Gerbes Super Market, was scratched by the wagon wheels during the flight which ended about six blocks away when the horses ran into the Carper car.

Yoder finally caught up with his team at the Carper car, drove them back to the rest of the wagon, put it together and finished his business in town.

No one could be found who could shed any light on what it was that scared the team and caused it to run away.

The runaway, once a familiar happening in Windsor and other rural communities, caused quite a sensation in town.

The same fender damaged on the Welbern car was struck by a car only three weeks ago and had only recently been repaired. It was parked when hit before.

Man Tells Police He Killed Mother In Argument

CINCINNATI (AP)—A man known here as Augustus Clifford Watson, 41, told police early today that he killed his mother, Mrs. Pearl Hartlage, in Evansville, Ind., on Oct. 15, 1954.

He said the body is buried beneath the flooring of a cupboard in a farmhouse near Crawfordsville, Ind., about 140 miles north of Evansville, and 40 miles north-west of Indianapolis.

Watson was pointed out to police by a man who said he recognized him from a picture in the magazine "Inside Detective." A story entitled "What Became of Pearl Hartlage?" was in an issue of the magazine, along with a picture of her son.

Watson told police here that he shot his mother during a quarrel over receipts of an oil station-restaurant business they operated in Evansville. He claimed the shooting was accidental.

He told Detective Thompson Buchanan that his wife, Mary, and three children, Peter, 8, Juanita, 7, and Janice, 2, knew nothing of the slaying.

Burial was in the Clarksburg Masonic Cemetery.

Rains Flood Two Cities In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Overnight rains of nearly 12 inches flooded two northwestern Oklahoma cities and forced evacuation of the 350 persons at the little agricultural community of Dover.

Three persons were dead in the storm area. Patrolman W. P. Tucker who has been in Dover all night helping with evacuation said that two persons reported missing had been found safe.

More than eight feet of water swept in from the Cimarron River and its tributaries. Tucker said that the sun was breaking through.

Enid, a wheat growing center of 35,000 had from 5 to 12 feet of water in sections of town after 10 inches of rain overnight.

A traffic accident due to rain and mud brought death to Cathy Dawn Marks, 8. She was pinned beneath a farm tractor which overturned. Her mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Marks, 26, had driven the tractor to a country road with two children, to pull a school bus out of the mud.

Blaine County officers said the bodies of two elderly persons were found in a cellar seven miles west of Okene. They were not identified.

The Red Cross announced it was sending food and bedding to Dover. The Oklahoma Air National Guard sent a cargo plane to drop food supplies. The State Highway Patrol delivered 14 cases of milk for children at Dover.

Mass evacuation of Dover, a town of about 350 persons in Kingfisher County, began early today.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol called this morning for heavy boats to assist in evacuating residents. Within an hour, the patrol said it had enough boats and men to handle the evacuation.

Some sections of Enid, in the same general area, were under 3 to 12 feet of water and many persons were being removed from their homes there. However, the floodwaters were receding at Enid.

The patrol reported three cars and a truck were washed off a highway south of Hennessey by swift water overflowing from Turkey Creek. The patrol said it was not known whether the vehicles were occupied.

Two persons were reported missing at Dover.

Nearly 12 inches of rain during the night sent the Cimarron River and Turkey Creek out of their banks at Dover, inundating the town and cutting off highways leading into it. Enid had nearly 10 inches of rain overnight.

The Cimarron still was rising. Boats and big trucks crisscrossed flooded areas of Enid during the night to rescue marooned persons. Wayne Mullican, a reporter for the Enid News-Eagle, said "in virtually every street there are cars covered with water and merchandise is floating out of stores."

Haiti Turmoil More Violent Over Election

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Haiti's political turmoil grew more violent today.

Ten thousand farmers armed with knives blockaded the road to the capital to keep our food supplies. Arson and sabotage were increasing. The government said troops and police were battling armed demonstrators in many communities to put down "a state of terror."

Army headquarters said the situation was critical.

The capital itself remained comparatively quiet.

The seven-man Executive Council, which is supposed to be arranging for elections June 16, banned freedom of speech and muzzled the press, radio and judiciary in a desperate attempt to restore order.

The council, an interim government until a president can be elected, pledged again that free elections would be held. It said it was forced to abrogate the constitution's guarantees of liberty of expression because the nation's future was at stake.

Dr. Francois Duvalier, one of the leading candidates of the 10 seeking the presidency, declared the people were organizing to topple the government and install a provisional chief of staff who would guarantee free and honest elections.

Duvalier charges the council has rigged the voting in favor of his two chief opponents, Louis Dejoie and Daniel Fignole.

The leading presidential candidates named representatives to the council to run the government after riotous demonstrations ousted President Paul Magloire last December and two provisional presidents since.

Duvalier broke with the other candidates recently and pulled his representatives off the council.

Troops were dispatched to clear barricaded roads.

The knife-armed farmers swarmed over the road at St. Marc, 45 miles north of the capital, turning back all vehicles headed for Port au Prince.

Others at Gonaves, 100 miles northwest of Port au Prince, hurled boulders from hillsides on to trucks trying to reach markets.

The army imposed a curfew on Jeremie, a city of 30,000 some 170 miles west of the capital, where scores of homes were destroyed Tuesday in a fire blamed on "political terrorists."

Highway Patrol Bill Headed for Conference

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A battered Highway Patrol bill today appeared headed for a House-Senate conference, where sponsors hoped to win an agreeable compromise.

The House passed the bill in the form recommended by Gov. James T. Blair—an increase in uniformed personnel from 355 to 600 and general pay raises. But the Senate slashed that Tuesday so the force was limited to 455 men and the salary hikes were eliminated.

Yesterday the House refused to accept those Senate changes and asked the Senate to take the original House bill—formal jockeying preparatory to getting a joint conference set up.

The House rejected a former county school superintendent's suggestion that the laws governing county superintendents be surveyed to see if the office should be continued or abolished. Rep. Fred B. House (R) of Johnson County said the study should be made because of reports that with school district reorganization county superintendents just are not needed any more.

But the House rejected his proposal on a voice vote after several Democrats complained the committee would have $5,000 to spend in making the investigation.

The House adopted a resolution to set up an interim study committee on election laws. If approved by the Senate the committee of five men from each house would try to coordinate the state's election laws and recommend needed legislation to the 1959 Legislature.

Accidents

Damage resulted to two automobiles in an accident at Missouri and Ninth about 8:23 a.m. Thursday.

Involved was a parked 1955 Chrysler sedan of Cline Cain, 821 South Missouri, and a 1947 Chevrolet sedan driven by Walter Wayne Clark, 17, of 2104 South Missouri who was going north on Missouri.

The left side of the Chrysler was damaged and the right side of the Chevrolet damaged.

Two cars were damaged in an accident at Broadway and Engle at 7:48 a.m. Thursday. No injuries were involved.

A 1952 Buick sedan was being driven west on Broadway by Phyllis Ann Agee, Route 2, Ottumwa, and a Kaiser sedan belonging to William Loomis, 1118 East Broadway, when the accident occurred.

The right front of the Buick was damaged and the left rear on the Kaiser damaged.

Other Fires

The Pettis County Fire Department made a run about 9:50 a.m. Tuesday to the farm of Van Ramey, eight miles northeast of Sedalia. The fire started when a gasoline tank on a tractor, which Ramey and his son were overhauling, exploded and set the garage and tractor on fire. Ramey and his son received painful burns on the arms and legs. Damage was estimated at $2300.

Ike's Budget Message Has Silver Lining

NEW YORK (AP)—In defense of his budget President Eisenhower says that big as the spending would be tax revenues would increase even more.

This view should be reassuring to business — painful as continued high tax rates are — because it's based on the belief the current lull in activity is to be mild and short lived.

Only by increased activity in the economy can corporate and individual incomes be boosted enough higher to yield still more tax revenues and thus either balance the budget or give the slight surplus the President predicts.

A clue to the trend in the total of taxable business and personal incomes should be found when the Treasury announces whether the March and April income tax payments came up to expectations.

The bulls and bears in Wall Street have been debating the trend of business activity and the indicated squeeze on corporate profit margins. Many influential industrial leaders have been predicting a new advance in activity late this year. The money managers in Washington have been standing pat on their contention that further inflation is more likely than deflation.

And many — but far from all — of the statistical yardsticks have been measuring out continued good times.

The total of personal income continues to rise, according to the latest figures available—but higher prices chip away a good deal of the real value of that, too, and make tax payments more painful.

Corporate earnings, on average, were about eight per cent higher in the first three months of this year than in the 1956 first quarter. But the rate of gain has noticeably slowed.

All of this tends to raise some doubts as to whether tax revenues will rise as much as predicted.

request of the complaining witness. Mrs. Keller reported the guns were left on her back porch early Thursday morning by a man she did not see.

Ervin Galloway, 52, of 515 East 26th, charged with disturbing the peace and threatening to do bodily harm to Lawrence Weller at 323 E. Harvey, was fined $50 on the first charge and dismissed on the second. He pleaded innocent.

Galloway appealed the case to the Pettis County Circuit Court.

Circuit Court

In Tuesday's paper the name of Evelyn Marie Jordan was inadvertently listed as Evelyn Marie Banks. The article was in regard to a damage suit filed by her through her mother, Vivian Marie Jordan, against the Yellow Cab Co.

Thomas Fisher was granted a divorce from Inez Mae Fisher on grounds of general indignities. Hayes and Durley represented the plaintiff.

Geneva Miller filed a petition for divorce against Keith Miller on grounds of general indignities. Hayes and Durley are her attorneys.

Neal M. Woods, Kansas City, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of passing on a hill. Woods entered a plea of guilty through his attorney Robert F. Wesner.

Charles Allen, WAFB, was fined $100 and costs and given a 30-day suspended sentence on a charge of failing to keep his car under proper control. Testimony indicated driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. Allen pleaded guilty.

Douglas W. Graham, WAFB, was fined $100 and costs and given a 30-day suspended sentence on a charge of failing to keep his car under proper control. Testimony indicated driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages. Graham pleaded guilty.

'Everything's Off' Is Best In Intramural Play Contest

By Phyllis Aggeler

A large crowd attended the annual intramural plays which were held at Sacred Heart Sunday evening, May 12. There were three plays given. The winning play, "Everything's Off," was presented by the sophomores under the direction of Mrs. Douglas Kennedy. Members of the cast were Carolyn Moser, Martha Berlin, Pat Seifner, Laura Zuroweste, Jim Couhig, John Martin, and Jim Mehl.

The best actress award went to Carolyn Moser, and the best actor award went to Jim Couhig. Mary Beth Staley and Ralph Vickers received honorable mention.

Other plays presented were "Apple for Teacher" by the Junior class under the direction of Father G. P. Pelletier, and "Honey of a Peach" by the Freshmen directed by Larry Riley. Members of the Junior play cast included Ruth Ann Bahner, Ruby Klein, Marie Springer, Sue Keller, Alinda Curp, Corinne Jirik, Marianne Keens, Linda Wiesing, Mary Lou Vickers, Johnny Buckley, Tommy Moser, Lee Roy Freese, Taras Gulaj, and Ralph Vickers.

The Freshmen play cast included Mary Beth Staley, Carol Brosch, Shirley Goss, Marie Mathieson, Judy Shults, Jim Wiesing, Adam Fischer, and Mike Edwards. The judges were Miss English, Mrs. Leonard Peabody, and Father J. H. Schrader.

The Seniors were the guests of the Juniors Saturday evening, May 11, at the Junior-Senior Prom which was held in the new cafeteria. The banquet was prepared by the Junior mothers and served by a group of Sophomore girls including Pat Seifner, Margaret Belker, Pat Farris, Rose Moriarty, Mary Virginia Rabourn, and Marge Hogan. The theme for the prom was "Paradise of the Deep."

MAYTAG Automatic Washer

also has these outstanding features:

- 2 speeds - 3 water temperatures
- automatic water level control
- suds saver
- 926 lint removers
- full-time safety lid
- non-rust cabinet

IMPORTANT

1. Burkholder's, Sedalia's largest Maytag dealer, has been selected to assist The Maytag Company with this factory survey.
2. Only 50 Maytag automatic washers have been allotted for this home survey. All are brand-new, unused 1957 models.
3. Testing housewife's only obligation is to answer a short questionnaire on her opinions of cold water washing. This questionnaire will be mailed by the Maytag factory with self-addressed, postage-paid return envelope.
4. Test home must have hot and cold water taps, electricity, and available drain for hook up of washer.

Laboratory Reports Prove

Cold Water Wash

RESULTS:

- ★ Kinder to wool, cashmere, and "orlon" than tenderest hand squeezing
- ★ Reduces shrinkage
- ★ Cuts ironing time
- ★ Saves wear on fabrics
- ★ Fabrics stay fresh and bright
- ★ Eliminates all hand washing

(Maytag of course has hot and warm water wash for regular fabrics too!)

Leading test laboratories and consumer magazines proclaim the results of Maytag cold water wash. NOW the Maytag company desires 50 Sedalia housewives to test this feature in practical day-to-day home use. Their comments will comprise a consumer survey to supplement the laboratory findings.

Needed: 50 HOUSEWIVES TO HOME-TEST THIS WASHER

No obligation... just test a new 1957 Maytag automatic in your home for a limited time... then state your opinions of cold water washing for modern fabrics on a short questionnaire mailed from The Maytag Company... Burkholder's delivers, installs, and picks up washer... all comments confidential.

Defense: Civilian, Military

Despite public apathy over civilian preparation for emergency war conditions in an atomic age, Missouri's Civil Defense Agency will continue to function for two more years as a result of legislative action.

Efforts were made to dump this agency which has the thankless job of trying to indoctrinate the public with methods of protecting civilian populations in case of war. Authorities insist that training for protection in event of attack is definitely worth while. There is no denying that under panic conditions of atomic attack it won't be easy to find shelter or conduct evacuation of population centers. But the average family apparently has just about concluded to trust to luck, judging from interest shown in civilian defense activities.

But trusting to luck is not all of it. People, like those in Central Missouri adjacent to Whiteman Air Force Base are putting their trust in the armed forces. On many previous occasions and again Sunday when Armed Forces Day will be observed at Whiteman civilians have seen the mighty protecting wings of the Air Force and feel secure. This is not a false sense of security; indeed it is real enough. But even the Armed Forces encourage a program which calls for the civilians to help look after themselves. The airmen, the navy and the army may be busy enough repelling an enemy attack without the added burden of taking care of panicky civilian groups.

So there may be some merit in keeping the spark of life in civilian defense agencies in order that there may be some semblance of organization having an action program ready even if the public has only a fair knowledge of how to implement it in case of emergency.

Just how matter of fact people treat alert signals has recently been demonstrated during the rash of midwestern tornadoes. In Dallas office workers stood at windows to watch the funnel go by. A Florissant man last week shooed his family to cover and then ran out to take a picture of a tornado cloud.

"Don't worry about it," is becoming a popular cliché, whether it applies to business activities, tornadoes or civilian defense.

In similar sense there is no worry about our national defense establishments providing they are kept up to par. The public will have an opportunity to learn more about the military services during the weekend observance throughout the nation of Armed Forces Day. The day is set by proclamation of the President always for the third Saturday in May, replacing Army, Navy and Air Forces Day of former years on separate dates.

Sedalia initiates the observance by a welcome to Major General Bernard Schriever, chief of the Air Force ballistic missile program and Missouri Senator Stuart Symington, at a banquet program in Smith-Cotton cafeteria Friday night. Whiteman Air Force Base will have open house from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Sunday for aircraft display, demonstrations and tours of the base.

3 Nations Now Have Hydrogen Bomb

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now three nations—the United States, Russia and Britain—can sit back and finger the trigger of their hydrogen bombs as they'd finger a farewell note.

With the explosion of its first hydrogen bomb high over the Pacific yesterday, Britain has moved into that new age where people may learn to be good because they're scared to death not to be. No bets are being taken on the outcome of this new age because it still has to be proved that people have enough sense not to start something that's going to get them killed.

It's comforting to the United States that its ally Britain now has both atomic and hydrogen bombs. It's one more bit of discouragement to the Russians against starting a hydrogen war since they can be hydrogenized themselves.

But it's going to be just a little harder on the nerves of all three countries, requiring them to stay constantly on the alert against a surprise attack which would be not only catastrophic but might be conclusive.

The Russians accuse the West of wanting war. The United States and Britain say the only reasons for their bombs is to prevent the Russians from starting a war.

Britain's development of the atomic and hydrogen bombs provides only two things for immediate purposes: (1) The British had brains and ability and resources enough to make them and (2) they weren't kidding when on April 4 they announced a startling change in their defense setup.

On that date the British, convinced they can't defend their small island in the era of intercontinental missiles, said they'd depend for defense on their ability to dish out equal catastrophe on anyone—meaning Russia—who started a war.

For the next three to five years Britain's ability to retaliate will depend on bombers carrying atomic and hydrogen bombs manufactured in Britain. Then they will be sticking the bombs in the nose of missiles provided by the United States.

And, since the British are going to depend for safety against nuclear attack on the power of nuclear discouragement, they will reduce their army, navy and air force.

When they made the April announcement it was still not known they had been able to produce hydrogen weapons. Apparently they had. So they weren't bluffing when they disclosed their new policy of defense.

Hard of Hearing Child Needs Special Aid to Help Speech

By LEON K. WHITNEY
Speech Therapist
Crippled Children's Center

Since children learn to talk by imitating the speech they hear, a hearing loss is a deterrent to speech development. There are varying degrees of hearing loss, from mild to total. Those whose loss is so severe that they cannot hear speech even with amplification are known as deaf. Others are called hard of hearing. The deaf child cannot, on his own, acquire speech. With help, many of them do acquire intelligible speech. The speech of the hard of hearing will be defective, unless the loss is very mild, or unless help is given him.

Help should be provided at an early age, probably by age three. It will usually be desirable to work with a speech therapist. If no speech therapist is available, the parents will need to inform themselves as to special methods that are necessary.

The first step for helping the hard of hearing child is to provide amplification so that he can hear. In cases of mild loss, it may be adequate merely to speak loudly. In others, amplification is indicated. There are many instruments for that purpose, from very simple devices to quite complex ones. Whatever is used should be tested on the child involved before purchase. An instrument that will amplify from a microphone, from recordings, and from radio will allow the child much more listening experience than one that uses only a microphone. The extra listening will not only provide pleasure for the child. It will also provide needed auditory stimulation that will improve his skill in listening to speech. Understanding speech requires quite discriminative listening, for in speech the sounds are blended together in very rapid movements. When we hear the word "Sedalia," for example, we have heard seven different sounds in the short time required to say that word. Extra listening, auditory training, will enable young ears to catch the sounds that flit by.

Speech drill with an amplifier will follow much the same principles as would be used with a hearing child. The child will learn to talk in this "concentrated listening" situation by (1) imitating the speech sounds he hears and (2) by watching the mouth movements of the helper. This last is quite important. Most parents will not know what movements take place in the mouth to produce any given sound. They can help their child to learn speech faster if they will acquire that knowledge. It is not practical to describe here how each sound is produced, so parents will have to be left on their own. Most of them are intelligent enough to concentrate on the way they themselves produce any given sound, observing the position and movements of tongue, lips, and jaw, repeating the sound over and over until they are sure they know what to tell, or show, the child about how to produce the sound. In a later article principles for correcting speech errors will be presented in some detail.

The totally deaf child will not, of course, benefit from amplification. The only way he can learn to talk is to memorize the muscle sensations he feels as he learns to produce voice, and each of the near forty speech sounds in our language. To do that may seem impossible, but it is not with proper instruction. It requires concentration and perseverance, but many deaf people have good speech.

Without knowing he has done so, the deaf child will have used his voice in crying, laughing, and in many emotional reactions. Thus, he has the foundation on which a speaking voice can be built. Correct muscle functioning for speech must, of course, be acquired before it can be remembered, and become the habitual pattern. The ability to phonate (produce voice) at will naturally precedes efforts to produce words. The child must memorize the patterns of breathing for speech, and the positions of the throat and voice box during phonation. He will acquire some sense of what is needed by feeling the throat and the breathing movements of the teacher during voice production. By prolonged experimenting, he can learn how much breath to use for an adequately loud voice for speech. He will learn pitch and tone variation from feeling the teacher's throat, and experimenting until the teacher informs him he has what is needed.

In like manner, he will feel the face and throat of the teacher, and will watch the lips, jaw, and observable movements of the tongue to learn to produce words. Pictures or objects or signs will be used to show the child what word is being spoken. Only a few words will be used at a time, and practice will

A Pernicious Practice

President Only Rules On 'Agreed Recommendations'

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Ike wants it clearly understood that he is President in fact and not just in name.

Several recent statements emphasize this. At his last press conference, for example, Ike told reporters the monetary policy of the government was his and that no one under him could change it without permission. He had been asked if the next Secretary of the Treasury — and that assumes the resignation of George Humphrey — would lower interest rates. The implication of the question, as it was put, was that Ike had better reach agreement on interest policy before making his appointment.

There was a flash of the Truman in Ike's answer. Harry Truman appreciated the powers of the presidential office, and he fought to defend them. Ike displays increasing sensitivity on precisely the same point.

Ike has been criticized, particularly by liberals, for failing to resist Congressional encroachments in the presidential preserve. In the opinion of some thoughtful observers this criticism has surface appeal, but misses the one dangerous practice to which Ike is inclined.

That is simply Ike's insistence on his subordinates presenting him only "agreed recommendations." Thus if the Air Force and Navy disagree, the disagreement must be resolved before a policy paper is put on the President's desk.

In his new book, A Citizen Looks At Congress, ex-Secretary of State Acheson writes: "A good many years of experience have convinced me that this is a thoroughly pernicious practice. Agreement is reached at the lowest common denominator of those agreeing. The method is not to resolve differences, but to obscure them by generalization. The greater the basic disagreement, the more general and vague the 'agreed recommendation' which each believes will permit the course upon which he is determined. The result is that the President is not aware that an issue exists calling for his authoritative decision, and is not informed of the considerations which he should weigh in deciding it. The desire to 'spare the President' differences of opinion may well deprive him of his chief duty and role . . ."

Truman indulged in this practice to an extent, especially in dealing with the Pentagon. The service chiefs reported to Key West in 1948, for example, to work out agreements on functions, missions, force levels. Of course improvements in weapons systems have long since made those agreements obsolete.

Alert critics are aware that the "agreed recommendations" in the position papers prepared at the Pentagon actually conceal fundamental disagreements. Henry Kissinger, writing in Foreign Affairs Quarterly, puts it this way: "... the conclusions of both the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the National Security Council reflect more the attainable consensus among sovereign departments than a sense of direction. Because agreement is frequently unattainable except by the Joint Chiefs of Staff or the National Security Council do not end interdepartmental disputes. Instead they shift them to an interpretation of the meaning of directives. And departments or services whose disagreements prevented the development of doctrine in the first place will choose the exegesis closest to their original point of view . . ."

What makes all this pertinent today is that the Pentagon is seething again. No matter the "agreed recommendations" or the public appearance of harmony, the services are deeply divided as to what their functions, missions, and force levels should be. The heart of the argument involves missile weapons. And the source of the trouble is that new weapon systems have obliterated the traditional lines of distinction among the services.

Examples to illustrate this point follow: By the classic concept the primary role of the Navy is to destroy its enemy counterpart and achieve control of the seas. The Navy today can do more than this. It could strike deep into the Eurasian heartland with carrier based planes. And with nuclear weapons, the Air Force might be able to destroy any enemy Navy and win domination of the seas. The classic job of the Army is to destroy the enemy Army. But with a 1,500 mile missile at its disposal — and that's what the Army insists it must have — the Army could take on the enemy Navy or launch strikes at strategic targets in the enemy heartland.

Maybe the services will work out a meaningful agreement. But the suspicion is that eventually the President will have to settle matters himself.

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.

Metropolitan commuters travel great distances in cars, buses, trains and on foot to reach their places of business and to return to their homes at the end of the day. They think little of traveling 30 miles, 100 miles or even more in each 24 hours of life.

City workers walk eight to 12 blocks to "go around the corner." Scores of these people walk many more miles in corridors and along hard pavements than do village inhabitants who hesitate to walk a half mile to work.

Our ways of life differ by the area in which we live and in accord with our habits. It is probably best that we live our lives effectively wherever we find our lot. We can adjust to circumstances but let us not become such creatures of habit that we forget to love our fellowmen. Let us ever give them our sympathy and our love.

be continued until words are fairly well mastered. Those that use the lips, and only the front of the tongue, should be used at first so that the child can have the benefit of seeing the words spoken. By feeling the throat of the teacher, the child can learn how the sounds of "k" and "g" are produced. Drawing pictures, or using the palm of one hand to represent the top of the mouth, and the other hand, the tongue, may help the child to learn to produce those sounds that use parts of the tongue he cannot see.

Teaching the deaf child to talk is a very slow process. Teachers will often feel they had as well quit trying. The rewards of success, however, are well worth every moment of effort.

Most deaf and hard of hearing children will acquire much lip reading on their own. Parents may facilitate it, however, by having the child watch the mouth while the child knows what is being talked about, but not that is being said.

Record Oil Profits From Suez Debacle

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — The stockholders reports of big corporations usually make dull reading. But the reports of the major oil companies this spring make fascinating reading.

They show that the Suez Canal fiasco may have put the skids under Britain as an empire, but it made beautiful music in the cash registers of the big American oil companies. They reaped millions from Britain's tragedy at Suez.

The oil companies had been asked by the Eisenhower administration to supply oil to Western Europe, formed a semi-official committee to do so, asked the right to avoid compliance with the Sherman Anti-Trust Act. Then they immediately announced a stiff increase in the price of oil.

Humble oil, a subsidiary of Standard of New Jersey, led the way with an increase of 35 to 40 cents a barrel. These two companies are controlled by the Rockefeller family which contributed $152,604 to Eisenhower in the '56 campaign. The family of Chris Herter, new Undersecretary of State, inherited its millions from Standard of N.J., while the Dulles law firm in New York — Sullivan and Cromwell — represents Standard of N. J.

As a result of the increase, Standard of N.J. raked in the whopping total of $27,000,000 in net profits during the brief first three months of this year — 16 per cent higher than the same period last year.

Biggest profit bonanza from Suez went to Gulf Oil — 30 per cent during the first three months of 1957 over the same period last year. Gulf gets all its oil from the Gulf of Persia, is closely affiliated with Union Oil of California, of which Undersecretary Herbert Hoover Jr., was executive vice president. The Mellon family, which controls Gulf, contributed $100,150 to the Ike campaign last fall.

The Texas Company's profits shot up 23.5 per cent during the first three months of 1957 and Board Chairman Augustus Long frankly stated in his report to stockholders that the big spurt was due to Suez. Texas is a part owner of the Arabian American Oil Co.

Standard Oil of Ohio jumped its profits 20 per cent during the first three months, despite the fact that its volume increased only 3 per cent. Clyde T. Foster, president of Sohio, admitted that the Suez crisis was responsible.

Socony Mobil and Standard of California, both part owners of the Arabian American Oil Co., each jumped its profits 13 per cent, while Sinclair increased 8 per cent despite the fact that sales increased only 1.8 per cent.

No July 4 On Film

President Eisenhower has refused to film a special message for the annual fourth of July celebration at Philadelphia's Independence Hall, birthplace of American independence.

Answering for the President, White House Aide Frederic Fox wrote to William Goldman, chairman of the celebration committee: "I must report that this message will — like the Declaration of 1776 — be carried on paper, not on film." Ike, he said, would send a written message only.

This burned up the celebration committee which appealed to U. S. Information Director

Guest Editorial—

DES MOINES REGISTER: Turn Lights Used As Roadside Warning. For some time now, trucks parked on the roadside have been using their flashing turn signals to mean: "I am disabled. Go on around me, but with care" as well as the customary "I am turning right" or "I am turning left."

The other day Governor Loveless signed a bill passed by both houses of the Iowa legislature to make this signal in Iowa. (It does not lessen the obligation to use flares.)

The law permits any vehicle disabled on or close to the highway to use this signal if it has the proper directional lights.

Here's a new addition for every highway user's safety vocabulary.

Arthur Larson, pointing out that a filmed message would dramatize our Independence Day around the world.

"I am sure," wrote City Representative Abe Rosen, "that this filmed commentary by the President would be something that every movie house and television network in the country would use on July 4th."

Larson wrote back that the White House's refusal was final.

Exit Un-American Chairman

The passing of Sen. Joe McCarthy will be followed by the departure from Washington of his counterpart in the House of Representatives, Ex-Congressman Harold Velde (R., Ill.)

Velde, who once created rival headlines as chairman of the House Committee on Un-American activities, has been hanging around Washington since he withdrew from Congress, trying to wangle a job from the administration. His latest bid was for the Chief Counsel's job at the Federal Housing Administration. He even tried to drum up clients for a private law practice, but couldn't raise enough business to make it pay.

Now the forlorn ex-headline hunter is about to pack his bags and leave the scene of his former triumphs. He is even using his free postal privileges as an ex-congressman to sell his home.

Ex-Congressmen are entitled to free postage for six months after they leave office to clean up their official business. This privilege is not supposed to be used, of course, for personal mail. Yet Velde is sending out circulars, postage free, to prospective home buyers, offering his house for sale.

It might be called direct mail advertising at the taxpayers' expense. Velde's circular offers: "Excellent opportunity to purchase lovely one-story red-brick rambler, first class condition, from original owner. House a little over two years old, in perfect location for members of Congress, or Capitol Hill employees, as well as Andrews Air Base and Bolling Field personnel . . . Owner willing to paint walls in colors desired by purchaser. Immediate occupancy can be arranged. Call former Congressman, Harold H. Velde . . . To arrange appointment to see home and discuss details and purchase price."

But He Kept on Trying

Not long ago a milestone was passed—the 100th anniversary of the birth of the famed Chicago defense lawyer, Clarence Darrow. No one who treasures human justice will let the event go unobserved.

A rough and ready advocate brimming with independent spirit, Darrow braved hostile opinion to defend murderers and other unpopular individuals.

He pioneered in theories of criminality which helped to lead the nation away from vindictiveness toward a more balanced, less emotional approach. In the celebrated Loeb-Leopold murder case in Chicago, as defender he succeeded in winning the court's acceptance of psychiatric data — now a commonplace in trials.

Darrow once said: "When you're a young man you want to reform the world, and you think you can. When you grow old, you still want to, but you know you can't."

Yet there was no evidence down to the last day of his memorable life that Clarence Darrow ever really believed there was no further use in trying.

Billy Graham's Crusade Has Rousing Start in New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Graham's son Square Garden as Graham New York crusade got off to a rousing start last night. He said it could be the "beginning of a spiritual fire that will sweep this nation and ignite the world."

A crowd of 18,500 filled Madison Square Garden.

Asks Restudy Of Strategy In Uprisings

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House Foreign Affairs subcommittee said today that what it called failure of the free world and United States to take positive action in the Hungarian revolt "constitutes the lost opportunity of our generation."

It called for restudy and revision of U. S. strategy in possible future satellite uprisings, suggested get-tough steps against the Soviet Union as long as it defies the United Nations on Hungary, and recommended creation of a permanent, mobile force of U. N. observers.

Rep. Fulton (Pa.), one of the two Republicans on the five-member subcommittee headed by Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D-N.Y.), took sharp issue with some findings in the majority report.

Fulton said President Eisenhower and other U. S. officials acted as speedily and wisely as conditions permitted in the Hungarian rebellion of last October.

He said that even with hindsight, the subcommittee recommends no specific steps that the administration didn't take. The majority "simply complains of the necessary time" required for consultation for joint U. N. action, he said.

The subcommittee, whose jurisdiction is European affairs, issued its findings after a 12-day Eastertime trip to Britain, France, Germany and Austria.

The subcommittee said present U. S. policy toward revolt in the satellites is only (1) that his country will not intervene militarily and (2) that it will give advance assurance of this to the Soviets.

"The failure of U. S. foreign policy, as highlighted by the failure of our action toward Hungary, has indicated to the world that while the United States can marshal its forces effectively for all-out military purposes, it has failed to prepare for the kind of war where weapons subtler than guns and tanks are needed," it said.

The subcommittee went on to recommend a number of steps to meet what it called "this new era in satellite relations."

Besides a review of U. S. policy and intelligence systems, it called for preparation of a wide range of standby proposals for quick presentation to the U. N., depending on what circumstances arise. It recommended "social isolation" of the Soviets through such steps as breaking off diplomatic relations and the canceling of sports and cultural events, and a U. N. inquiry to throw the spotlight on conditions in Soviet-controlled countries.

"We have lost God," he declared, his voice stern, his arms out thrust. "We have lost our anchorage, our moorings, our moral direction, our spiritual sensibilities."

At the end of the sermon, when he appealed for those who would "give your life to Christ" to come forward, 485 people came.

He said it was "the largest first-night response I've ever seen from the pulpit in America."

They filed up the aisles, and down from the bunting-draped galleries. They crowded the escalators, moving to the ground floor, and clustered around the speaker's platform, a few of them fearful.

"As you come," Graham said, "many of you are not quite sure what is happening to you. It is a new birth. It is something God does for you supernaturally."

It was a dramatic interval, with the arena lights dimmed, and the choir of 1,500 singing softly. "Just as I am, I come, I come," Graham stood with head bowed, his chin on one hand.

At the outset of the service, he expressed belief that the crusade may stir a "spiritual revolution." It is scheduled to last for at least six weeks.

"We need a spiritual revolution in America," he said, "and the place where it could begin is in New York."

A mass of greenery encircled the pulpit—potted ivy, ferns, cedars and other shrubs. Above it stretched a long blue banner, lettered in white: "Jesus, said, 'I am the way, the truth and the life.'"

American flags hung from the ceiling.

The crowd began gathering hours before the meeting.

When the doors opened, they jammed the ground-floor chairs, and filled the three tiers above to the eaves, except for a few places high behind the pulpit.

Television Writers Show Gain on Movies

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The combined earnings of writers in the television field are gaining on those of movie writers, says the Western Division of the Writers Guild of America.

TV writers now are contributing about 32 per cent of the guild's total income through dues based on their earnings compared with 26 per cent last year, the guild reported yesterday.

Movie script writers contribute 53 per cent, 13 per cent less than last year.

Trucker Sleeps in Car And Wakes in Hospital

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Clarence Barnes, a 52-year-old trucker, told police he went to sleep in the rear seat of his car parked at the top of an embankment after taking a few drinks.

The next thing he knew, Barnes told officers, he was in the hospital.

His car went over the 45-foot embankment late yesterday and into the Mississippi River. Barnes was thrown clear, suffering head injuries and body bruises.

Witnesses reported two other men were in the car but Barnes said he was alone. The Coast Guard stopped searching after recovering the car.

A cord of wood contains 128 cubic feet.

Siamese Twins Die

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Siamese twin boys, joined at the head, died on the operating table as surgeons worked to separate them.

The 3-month-old infants, Terry and Larry Powell, were in surgery nearly five hours yesterday.

Hospital officials said the surgeons found the twins had common brain tissue.

The operation was performed with the permission of the twins' 19-year-old parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powell of Hawthorne, Calif.

GOP Leaders Hold Meeting

CINCINNATI (AP)—Republican leaders from seven states gathered here today to "sound out grass roots sentiment on political issues of 1957 and 1958."

The meeting is one of a series sponsored by the GOP National Committee, the Republican Congressional Committee and the Republican Senatorial Committee. GOP officials said they are seeking information to acquaint national leaders with local problems and "guide Republican policy in the local, gubernatorial and congressional elections of 1957 and 1958."

States represented at the meeting here are Ohio and Missouri,

Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and West Virginia.

Today's sessions were devoted to a meeting of finance representatives of the various states and talks by Sen. Homer Capehart of Indiana and Rep. Richard Simpson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the GOP Congressional committee.

Highlight of tomorrow's session will be a telephone address to the group by President Eisenhower. Secretary of Agriculture Benson also is to speak at the meeting.

THE FARM REMAINS...

BASIC

Although Missouri Public Service supplies electricity to a large variety of industries, the farm remains basic. Electricity plays an increasingly greater part in western Missouri farm operations, making the job of raising livestock and grain, and producing dairy products, an easier, more profitable undertaking.

Urban and suburban growth has also made increasingly stronger demands for more electric power. For example, one of the many suburban areas served has grown so rapidly the electric power supply has been increased 925% since 1952. The increasing growth in population, forecast for the next 20 years, will make even greater demands on electric power supply.

More electric power needed for farm and home will be abundantly supplied, as it has been in the past, by the men and women of the

Actor's Ex-Wife Wants $100 a Month to Feed Two Year Old Son

LOS ANGELES (AP)—For a 2-year-old boy, actor Rod Cameron's son is a hearty eater. The child's mother says she needs $100 a month just to keep up with his appetite.

Angela Alves-Lico, 25, the ex-Mrs. Cameron, yesterday asked an increase from $200 to $500 a month in Cameron's support payments for their son Anthony. Among his expenses she listed $100 a month for food.

Observed Superior Judge Wallace L. Ware: "I live pretty well, but my wife and I don't eat $100 a month worth of food — and we entertain a lot."

The judge raised the monthly payments from $200 to $300 and advised Miss Alves-Lico to begin practicing economy.

Police Are Ordered Out in Force to Stop Fight Among Soldiers

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese police say they and U. S. military police were ordered out in force last night to prevent a fight between American white and Negro soldiers at Tokorozawa, 20 miles north of Tokyo.

No fighting developed but "there was a tense situation" as 20 Japanese police and 30 MPs guarded the streets, a police spokesman at Tokorozawa said.

An Army ordinance depot is located at Tokorozawa. Army headquarters said it was "checking" the report but had no information immediately.

A U. S. Air Force official, however, said he understood there had been fighting "between Negro and white army men" from the depot the previous night and the MPs were called out to prevent a threatened recurrence.

Japanese authorities said someone, not identified, threw a tear gas bomb at a beer hall where Negro soldiers had assembled. No

Project Would Take Away Historic Sites

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—A citizens group which says it does not want the nation's oldest city "to become just another town" claims 2,000 names on a petition opposing a plan to widen historic Bay Street.

The petition asks that the City Commission let the people vote on the street widening issue.

Mrs. Arthur McQuaig, a city commissioner, said the project would destroy "some of our historical sites that are so important to the city, state and nation."

one was hurt, but about 40 white and 30 Negro soldiers assembled in groups in four beer halls. They were dispersed by MPs, who "arrested some," the Japanese said.

Bad or Good Luck?

DALLAS (AP)—Mrs. Madie Kirby discovered five long-forgotten four-leaf clovers in her home, then went to see the Dallas Eagles play San Antonio in a Texas League baseball game. "I thought the clovers might bring the Eagles luck," she said. Dallas won the game 2-0, but someone stole Mrs. Kirby's car while she watched.

Fish Story HAMMOND, Ind. (AP)—A guppy in Mrs. Howard L. Rose's aquarium gave birth to nine little guppies and then flipped out of the tank and died.

With paring knife, tweezers and safety pins, Mrs. Rose delivered 21 more little guppies from the tiny fish's body.

Flood in Spokane; Heavy Damage Results

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Flood-water from a cloudburst ripped through Spokane last night, forcing the evacuation of hundreds of persons and causing heavy damage.

Roads and bridges were washed out and cars were trapped by the fast-rising water which couldn't be carried away quick enough at the height of the violent storm.

Major damage occurred when a bank washed away and broke a storm sewer that had been carrying much of the runoff from the South Hill residential section. Water from the broken sewer undermined buildings on a street just off the main business district. The foundation of an apartment house sagged and the rear wall crumbled. The building hung precariously on a steep bank as soft dirt on either side was carried away.

Tornadoes Hit Storm Tossed Texas Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Death-dealing tornadoes swept across areas in storm-battered Texas again last night and early today, with the most destructive of the dozen or more twisters striking Silverton, a small Panhandle community.

The Red Cross said at least 13 persons were killed and 68 injured in Silverton, a town of 857 population about 50 miles southeast of Amarillo. Police radio was the only source of communication to the town.

The tornado activity in the Panhandle and South Plains was a continuation of the series of violent storms which have hammered Texas for the last month. Floods have added further damaging blows to many parts of the state.

Warnings of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms were issued by the Weather Bureau throughout the night for parts of west and central Texas. Similar notices were posted for western Oklahoma and south central Kansas.

The violent weather resulted from the clash of cold Canadian air with warm, humid air from the Gulf of Mexico.

The twister which pounded Silverton reportedly struck late last night. Others were reported early today at Lockney, about 30 miles south, and in the nearby Tulla area.

The tornadoes that skipped across the Panhandle and South Plains earlier yesterday smashed dozens of homes and farm buildings. One person was injured. Several others were reported missing.

Heavy rain and hail hit wide areas in the storm belt in Texas and Oklahoma. More than 6 inches of rain fell in six hours during the night and early morning in Enid, Okla., which was hit by strong winds and some hail.

Elsewhere along the boundary of the warm and cold air only a few wet spots were reported. Scattered thunderstorms hit areas in Colorado and southeastern Wyoming, with heavy runoffs closing mining, with heavy runoffs closing some roads.

Much cooler weather prevailed in the northern and central plains east, northeastward across the Mississippi and Ohio valleys to New England.

Record of Voting On Soil Bank Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here's how House members from Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri voted yesterday on the roll-calls to end soil bank payments after this year:

Democrats for—Bolling, Brown, Cannon, Hull, Jones, Karsten, Moulder and Sullivan of Mo., Gatherings of Ark.

Republicans for—Smith of Kan., and Curtis of Mo.

Democrats against—Carnahan and Christopher of Mo., Albert, Edmondson, Jarman, Steed and Morris of Okla., Breeding of Kan., Norrell, Hays, Mills, Trimble and Harris of Ark.

Republicans against—Belcher of Okla., Scrivner, Rees, Avery and George of Kan.

Conduct Tests at Harvard

Psychiatrists Report Record Time For 'Brainwashing'

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN
CHICAGO (AP)—A possible time record for "brainwashing"—one hour and 38 minutes—was reported at a national meeting of psychiatrists today.

A team of Harvard University psychiatrists brought a volunteer quickly to a state of panic merely by placing him in isolation in an inactivated iron lung. They were studying psychiatric aspects of stress.

Only 5 of 71 medical and dental students volunteers were able to stay in the respirator the full 36 hours the experiment was set to run.

The only stress imposed on the volunteers was the deprivation of the usual wide variety of sensations they experienced through sight, hearing and touch.

The team consisting of Doctors Donald Wexler, Jack H. Mendelson, P. Herbert Leiderman and Philip Solomon told of the tests in prepared reports at the annual meeting of the American Psychiatric Assn.

One by one the volunteers were placed on their backs in the iron lung in a semidarkened room. The subject could not see any part of his body. His vision was limited to a small section of the ceiling. An attendant sat silently behind him, out of sight, to feed him and attend to his needs.

One volunteer, a 25-year-old unmarried dental student, entered the tank and immediately complained of pain in the neck.

Within an hour he was perspiring profusely. He started telling a series of jokes. Then he demanded a drink of water to determine if the observer was still in the room. Within an hour and 15 minutes he began describing hallucinations.

He dozed off briefly at two hours and awoke complaining of a pain in the left side.

At 7½ hours he wanted to leave the tank, but when the observer

Airplanes Drop Smoke Bombs in Defense Test

TOOELE, Utah (AP)—A B25 bomber and three jet fighters buzzed this northern Utah community yesterday and dropped smoke bombs in a test of civil defense preparedness.

There were 100 mock "casualties."

And there was a man who cut his hand, a boy who fainted when he saw realistic "wound" make-up, a young war widow who fainted as the jets buzzed overhead, and the man who thought the smoke was caused by a fire on his property.

Woman Takes Own Life After Seeing Son Hurt in a Fall

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Patrolman M. Granados said neighbors told him Mrs. Phyllis Briggs often said if anything ever happened to her children, she'd kill herself.

She did.

The 33-year-old divorcee was found sprawled on her bed near a 22 caliber pistol shortly after she saw her son, George, 11, almost sever his left arm in a fall from a church roof. Stunned by the sight of her son crying in pain as blood spurted from his arm, she ran to her home near by and locked all doors and windows, officers said. Her body was found minutes later.

A verdict of suicide was rendered by Bexar County medical examiner. Her son was reported in fair condition at a hospital.

High School Students Adopt 51 Rule Code

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—The home at a respectable hour; be sure parents know where teenagers are at all times; take school and personal problems to favorite teachers.

The pupils adopted a 51-rule code of conduct for school, church, home and community.

Sample rules:
Wear clothes and styles accepted by the majority; attend only approved movies; frown upon smoking and "absolutely forbid drinking"; when out at night go 12 children."

Dozen Reasons

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Henry Amado didn't have to do much talking to persuade the City Board of Adjustment to grant him a permit to build another bedroom on his home. All he said was: "I have 12 children."

71 Year Old Statue Falls From Pedestal

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—For 71 years a statue of Hebe, goddess of youth, has watched over historic Court Square in the center of Montgomery. But her eternal youthfulness has ended.

When no one was looking, she fell from atop a 25-foot fountain and smashed into one of the elevated pools of the high structure. City officials can't figure out why.

All of the major league baseball clubs were down to the 25-player limit today but it took some scrambling by nine of them to reach the required figure by last midnight.

With only hours remaining the nine began disposing of their expendables through trades, sales, options and outright releases.

Some of the clubs, however, still carried more than the 25 because under the rules a team is permitted to carry an ex-serviceman for one year without affecting the player limit. Johnny Podres, ace of the Dodgers' mound staff, falls in this category. So does Frank Bolling of Detroit, whose service status expires May 28.

Here's how the last nine clubs reached the limit yesterday:

National League
Brooklyn — Sold pitcher Karl Spooner to Macon, Ga., of South Atlantic League.

New York — Optioned southpaw Pete Burnside to Minneapolis of American Assn.

Milwaukee — Sent outfielder Wes Covington and pitcher Bob Trowbridge to Wichita in the American Assn. on option.

Cincinnati — Took infielder Rocky Bridges off the active list and asked waivers on him. Waiver expires Monday.

St. Louis — Optioned outfielder Jim King to Omaha in American Assn.

American League
Washington — Purchased outfielder Bob Usher from Cleveland. Sold outfielder Dick Tietze to Indians' farm at San Diego in Pacific Coast League. Optioned outfielder Neil Chrissy to Indianapolis and pitcher Garland Shifflett to Charlotte.

Boston — Optioned catcher Heywood Sullivan to Miami of International League.

Cleveland — Optioned infielder Billy Harrell to San Diego in PCL and sold veteran first baseman Preston Ward to same club.

New York — Optioned infielder-outfielder Woody Held to Denver in American Assn.

of the doubting Thomases.

It is strange that Wilson and Lawrence, despite generally effective pitching usually with mediocre ball clubs, rarely have impressed veteran observers.

Lawrence won his fourth game of the season last night, pitching Cincinnati to a 7-2 victory over Philadelphia. The win boosted the Redlegs back into a tie with Milwaukee for the National League lead. The 22-year-old right-hander permitted only five hits and fanned 11.

Wilson pitched Chicago to a 5-0 triumph over Washington, enabling the White Sox to retain their first-place lead of half a game over the New York Yankees in the American League. The 35-year-old right-hander yielded only four hits en route to his second successive shutout and third of the season. Like Lawrence, his record is 4-1.

Effective pitching by Don Drysdale and Clem Labine and Don Zimmer's 10th-inning home run combined to give Brooklyn a 3-2 victory over Milwaukee. St. Louis defeated the New York Giants 6-5 in 14 innings when Hal Smith singled home Del Ennis from second.

Tom Sturdivant's five-hitter featured the Yankees' 3-0 shutout over Kansas City. Cleveland cracked five singles in the 16th inning off Mike Fornieles to score three times and defeat Baltimore 11-8 in a 4 1/2-hour marathon that involved 38 players, including 11 pitchers. Boston's Red Sox unleashed a 16-hit attack, their heaviest barrage of the season, to outslug the Detroit Tigers 11-8.

George Crowe, subbing for the ailing Ted Kluszewski at first base, drove in two runs in Cincinnati's victory with a pair of singles, but it was Smokey Burgess' second-inning home run that put the Reds in front.

Zimmer's game-winning home run for Brooklyn came off Lew Burdette, who had relieved Milwaukee starter Gene Conley in the eighth. The Dodgers tied the score in that inning. Gil Hodges homered for Brooklyn.

A three-up and three-down three-inning relief effort earned Larry Jackson his fourth relief victory for the Cardinals. The Cards, after tying the score at 5-5 in the seventh, scored the winning run off Allen Worthington.

Time Drip. Chicago's part-time first baseman was the big offensive gun as the White Sox guy slammed his fourth homer in the sixth and singled across a run in the eighth.

Rocky Colavito drove in Gene Woodling with the tie-breaking run and the Indians added two more on singles by Chico Carrasquel and George Strickland to score three runs in the 16th. Cleveland had scored three runs in the 14th to break a 5-5 tie, but the Orioles roared back with three runs of their own to tie it up again.

All three Yankee runs were scored in the first inning. The victim was Ned Garver, who gave the Yankees only three hits in six innings.

Veteran first baseman Mickey Vernon drove in four runs and Jackie Jensen three in Boston's victory over Detroit. George Susce, third Boston pitcher, was the winner. Frank Lary lost it.

Patterson Has Put His Title On the Line

NEW YORK — Floyd Patterson stands ready to defend his world heavyweight title in a New York ball park in July against "anybody in the world," preferably Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Emil Lence, former Brooklyn promoter, has been designated by Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, as the independent promoter to break the International Boxing Club's grip on the heavyweight throne.

D'Amato named Lence as the first of many independents who will be able to use Patterson as he made his formal break with the IBC.

"Patterson will not have one defense—but at least several and not in the New York area alone," said D'Amato yesterday at a news conference.

Les Arries, a television consultant, is making the rounds trying to sell a heavyweight defense to the TV networks. The asking price is $200,000 with no opponent yet.

Arries was associated with Lence when the New York dress manufacturer ran weekly TV shows at the Eastern Parkway Arena in Brooklyn.

There was more than a hint last night that Jackson, the No. 1 contender in both Ring and National Boxing Assn. ratings, would be tough to sign.

"No offer has been made," said Lippe Breitbart, Jackson's manager. "In my opinion the match, properly promoted, should do a million dollars, plus $200,000 for television. My fellow is the attraction. He'll draw the people. His end should be about $200,000 and we want some kind of a guarantee."

"My lawyer and I spoke with Lence about two weeks ago but he made no offer whatsoever. My lawyer will contact him in a day or two and we'll talk again. Whoever makes an offer must put up the money with Julius Helfand (chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission)."

Lence has applied for a license to promote in New York state.

If Jackson is not available, D'Amato said he would "go down the list until we get an opponent." The ranking contenders behind Jackson are Eddie Machen, Redding, Calif.; Harold Carter of Linden, N. J. (in the Army); and Willie Pastrano, New Orleans.

Jockeys Try To Dispel Ideas About Horses

BALTIMORE — Young Willie Hartack and old Jim Fitzsimmons, two of the leading characters in the cast for Saturday's $100,000-added Preakness, tried today to dispel a couple of growing impressions about their horses.

Hartack, vigorous and outspoken at 25, brushed aside a suggestion that Calumet's Iron Liege may be maturing into a better colt than stablemate Gen. Duke.

"But he's still the best horse in this race," he said of the thoroughbred which carried him to victory in the Kentucky Derby and will be under him again Saturday.

Fitzsimmons, stooped, gentle, but alert despite his 82 years, begged to differ with another notion, that Bold Ruler is a moody customer.

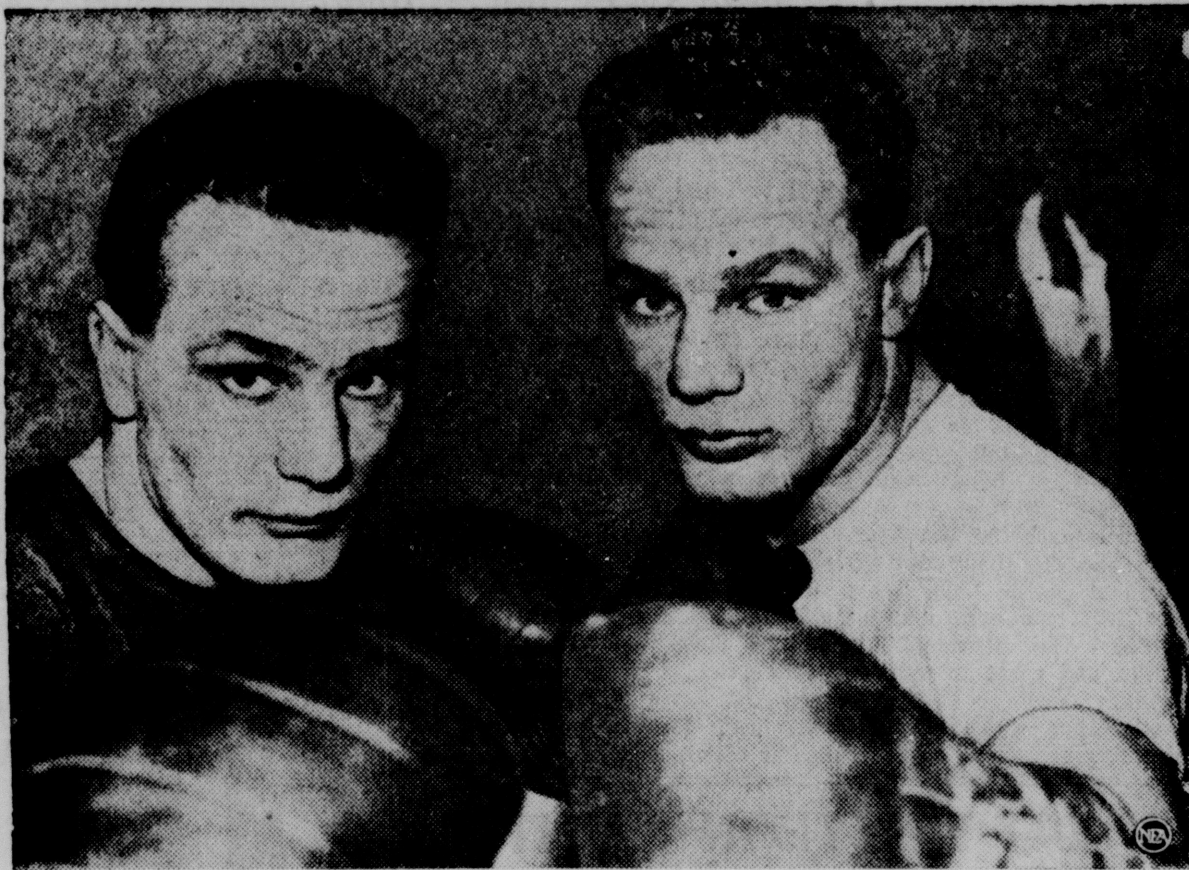

The idea spread after the Wheatley Stable star finished fourth as the 6-5 Derby favorite and jockey Eddie Arcaro described him as a "typical Nasrullah (sire of Bold Ruler and 1953 Preakness winner Nashua) when it comes to temperament."

"He's not really moody," said Fitzsimmons. "It's just that he doesn't like anybody to fool around with his mouth."

Mr. Fitz said Bold Ruler suffered a severe injury to his tongue as a 2-year-old.

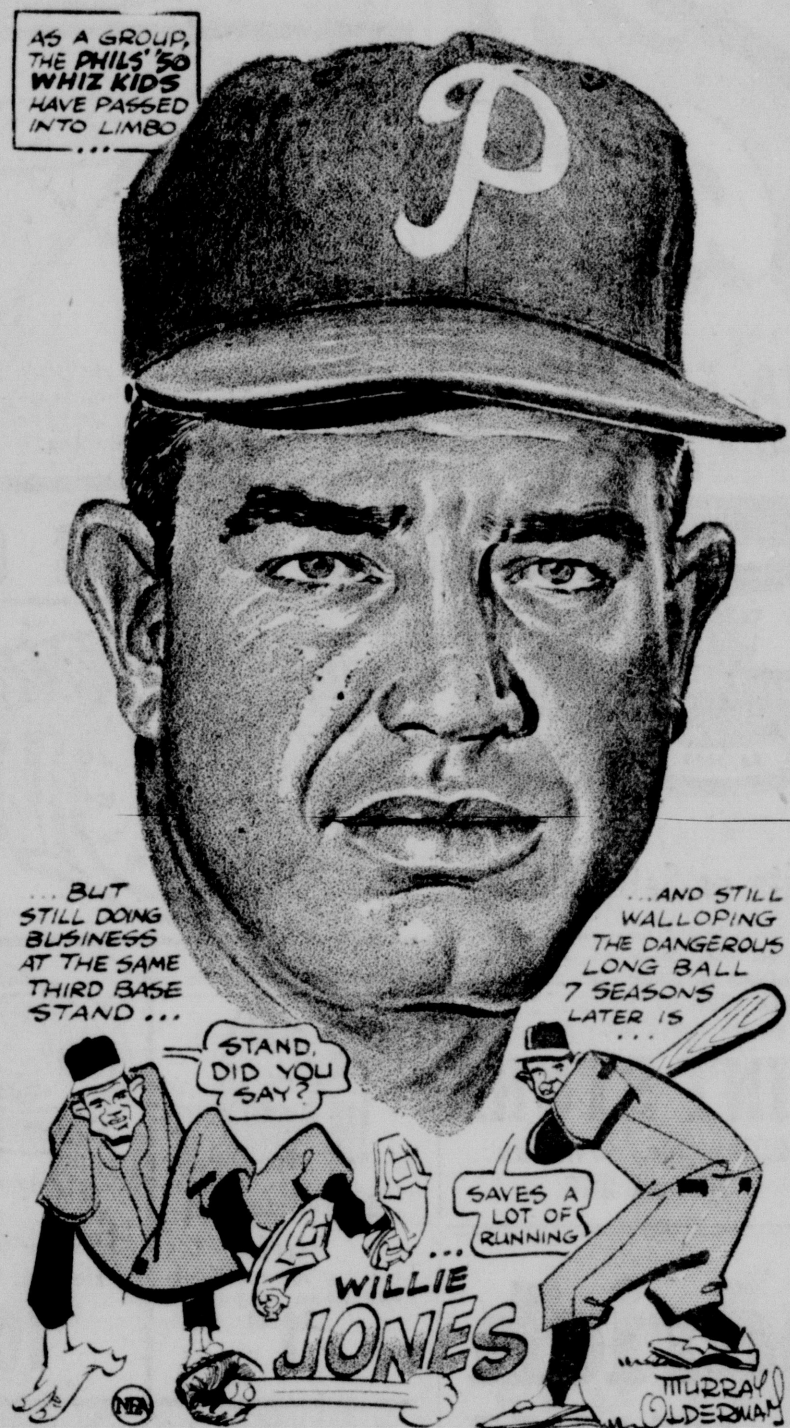

"We're not sure exactly how it happened," said Fitzsimmons, "but whatever it was, it hurt him pretty bad for a while. He's all over it now, but he still doesn't like to be pulled too sharply. When you do that, he bears to the outside to get away from you."

First apprentice to win the Kentucky Derby was Ira Hanford who scored with Bold Venture in 1938. Apprentice Willie Boland scored with Middleground in 1950.

WHICH TWIN HAS PUNCH? — Henry, left, and Jim Cooper, 23-year-old twin heavyweights from Bellingham, England, hope they confuse opponents as much as onlookers. Henry fights Ingemar Johansson in Stockholm, May 19, for the European heavyweight title. Jim is along to help him train and he'll also fight on the same card.

Sedalians to Take Part in Columbia Horse Show Sunday

Beautiful horses, striking costumes, and plenty of action will be featured at the Boone County Fairgrounds in Columbia at 8 p.m. May 18 when the horse show pageant, "The Horse America Made," will be presented by the Columbia Quota Club.

Several residents of the Sedalia area will take part in the show. The Western Horsemen will present a Colonial quarter horse race. Those who will take part are Frank Schouten, J. D. Gregory, Dale Dieck, Marion Gregory, Larry Gorrell, Charles Dowdy and Mrs. Duane Ewing.

Tigers Score 9-4 Win Over Concordia Team

The Hubbard Tigers defeated Concordia's baseball team Wednesday 9-4 at Concordia. Hubbard's pitcher, L. Cole, held Concordia to seven hits, while the Tigers belted 12 of them off of Concordia's Bohl-ing.

One of the oldest athletes in Michigan State history in service veteran Bill Bisard, a 31-year-old tennis player.

Don Burnham, class of 1944, still holds the Dartmouth mile run record of 4:10.6.

Zimmer Hits Homer in Tenth For Dodger Win

MILWAUKEE — Maybe Don Zimmer's hard luck days are over at last.

The Brooklyn Dodgers' gritty little infielder didn't think he'd play against the Milwaukee Braves yesterday because he had gone hitless in 14 trips.

But he did, and for the second time this season he belted a 10th-inning home run to give the Dodgers a one-run victory.

Zimmer's first-pitch homer off reliever Lew Burdette gave Clem Labine, also working in relief, the decision 3-2. Last April 30, he sank the Chicago Cubs 10-9 with a homer in the 10th.

"Zip," despite that 0 for 14 string, is batting .274, with four homers and 10 runs batted in. But, of more importance to him (and the Dodgers) is the fact that he has played in all of the club's 24 games. For him, it's quite an accomplishment.

That the 26-year-old Zimmer is playing at all is a tribute to his fortitude and unusual recuperative powers. He has come back after two near-fatal beatings, an appendectomy and a broken wrist.

In midseason of last year few thought he would play again after a pitch by Hal Jeffcoat smashed his cheekbone and impaired his vision. But the 5-9, 165-pound gamster was back—by September.

Hunting and Fishing Permits Take Dip From Sales in 1955

Sale of hunting and fishing permits in Missouri took a slight decline last year from 1955 sales, according to a fiscal report by William E. Towell, director of the Conservation Commission.

Non-resident sales did not follow the trend of other permits, but took a jump last year. Towell said that non-resident fishing permits were up 5,000 over the previous year to a total of 61,604. Non-resident hunting permit sales jumped over 700 to reach a total of 3,144.

Permits issued by counties, except for gun and archery permits, include: Benton, 8,279; Cooper, 3,404; Henry, 3,577; Johnson, 4,167; Lafayette, 5,307; Moniteau, 2,101; Morgan, 15,397; Pettis, 8,694 and Saline, 4,576.

Tufts Has Left-Handed Catcher

MEDFORD, Mass. — A rarity in baseball is the left-handed catcher. Tufts College has one in sophomore Joe Crowley, their first string receiver.

Coach Bill Kearns had a problem in that he needed a catcher. So he shifted Crowley from the outfield and the pitcher's mound, the spots he occupied as a freshman in 1956.

Crowley, a native of South Weymouth, Mass., also is a promising football player. He averaged eight yards a carry as a left halfback last fall.

The Rev. George Holderith has been Notre Dame's golf coach for 23 seasons.

Breaking a Neck Is Stupid

Speed Man Campbell Avoids Search for Cheap Thrills

NEW YORK — Donald Campbell, who will shoot for a world speedboat record of 250 MPH on upstate New York's Lake Canandaigua this summer, said today he's "no daredevil in search of cheap thrills."

"Basically, I am a very cautious individual," added the dapper, dark-haired Briton, the only man to go 200 miles an hour on the water and live to tell about it. "I don't think there's anything at all clever about smashing a boat, a car or breaking a neck. There's nothing glorious about taking unnecessary risks. It's downright stupid."

The Scottish-born speed king, son of the late Sir Malcolm Campbell, said he did not consider the tests he will make in his $70,000, jet-powered Blue Bird in any way akin to auto road racing such as the Mille Miglia, which Sunday resulted in the death of Spanish Marquis Alfonso De Portago and 12 others.

"I knew De Portago well and I thought it was a tragic accident," Campbell said. "But we are in a different field. We are engineers and scientists searching for new frontiers in speed. We are not stuntmen. We are more like airplane test pilots."

Judge Limits Amount To Spend on Bequest Of New Automobile

PATERSON, N. J. — It looks as if William C. Yarnall of Allendale will have to content himself with riding in a plain $7,500 buggy instead of the custom-made $20,000 British Bentley he'd had his eye on.

Lucine L. Lorrimer of Franklin Lakes, who died in 1954, had willed Yarnall "an automobile chosen by him." Yarnall chose the Rolls-Royce — but the executors of Miss Lorrimer's estate said his choice was extravagant and took the matter to court.

Superior Court Judge Walter J. Freund agreed with the executors yesterday, ruling that "commensurate with his (Yarnall's) station in life, a car not to exceed $7,500 would be a generous disposition of his bequest."

Friend said Yarnall, an insurance executive, lives in a $19,000 house and has an income of $14,000 a year.

Yarnall said he had done numerous odd jobs for Miss Lorrimer in her lifetime as a good friend and neighbor of the 35-year-old woman. He was one of numerous beneficiaries mentioned in the will. Others included his wife and children, who received cash bequests totaling $25,000.

Tropical Tune-Up

COVINA, Calif. — The Covina Seventh-day Adventist Church recently started a drive to collect musical instruments for the isolated inhabitants of tiny Pitcairn Island in the Pacific.

This is the island made famous when part of the crew of the ship H.M.S. Bounty mutinied and settled there. The present day inhabitants include descendants of these crewmen.

Recently the church here received a message by short-wave radio from Pastor Lester Hawks of the Seventh-day Adventist Church on Pitcairn Island. Pastor John M. Reeves, minister of the Covina church, said the message asked for used band instruments to accompany religious services and other special occasions.

The pastor said he and Irvin Johnson, master of the sailing ship Yankee, recently recovered the old anchor of the historic ship Bounty from the waters near Pitcairn Island.

Most square dances are adaptations of 17th century English country dances.

The 36-year-old Scotsman said the Blue Bird, which he powered to the world record of 225.63 MPH at Coniston, England, last Sept. 19, would arrive in the United States June 25 and would be sent immediately to Lake Canandaigua.

Campbell said later — probably 1959 — he may, like his late father, go after the land speed record as well. A special revolutionary car is being built for him in England powered by turbo jets which engineers believe can reach 400 MPH.

The land record of 394.196 MPH was set by the late John Cobb, another Briton, who was killed when his jet-propelled speedboat disintegrated at 206 MPH off the coast of Scotland in September, 1952.

Boyd Is Not Impressive In Third Win

CHICAGO — Bobby Boyd, who was bombed from the No. 2 middleweight rankings by Joey Giardello eight months ago, has a long way yet to go in his attempt to gain top contention.

The lanky, 23-year-old Chicagoan was not too impressive last night in winning his third straight fight since the Giardello incident with a split 10-round decision over shiftily Willie Vaughn.

Boyd, whose 43 victories in 52 bouts includes 22 kayoes, displayed little of the punching power that took him to the top before Giardello pulverized him in five rounds at Cleveland.

Vaughn connected with several good overhead rights to the jaw—the same punch that victimized Boyd in the Giardello episode. But the Los Angeles fighter didn't have the power to bother his gangly foe. He has only seven kayoes in 50 starts.

Vaughn was substituted for Rocky Castellani against Boyd when Rocky suffered an eye injury.

Vaughn said he only had 10 days to prepare for Boyd and could not get in the condition he would have liked. As it was, the fighters spent most of the time tying each other up and in only two late rounds did Boyd show signs of his old self, standing away and leveling with his long rights and lefts.

Boyd, who now is rated No. 8 in the 160-pound bracket by the National Boxing Assn., weighed 159 1/2 to Vaughn's 160 1/2.

Referee Walter Brightmore favored Vaughn 46-45 under the five point maximum system and Judge E. Allen Frankel liked Boyd 49-43 and Judge Harold Marovitz voted for him 47-45.

Yankee Outfielder Accused of Striking And Injuring Man

NEW YORK — Yankee outfielder Hank Bauer was accused in a report to police of striking and injuring a man early today in the basement of the Copacabana restaurant, but Bauer denied it.

There were no arrests but the district attorney's office ordered police to question all Yankee ball-players who were at the restaurant with Bauer.

The injured man was reported by police to be Edwin Jones, 42, of Manhattan. He was treated at Roosevelt Hospital for a fractured nose and a possible fracture of the jaw, police said.

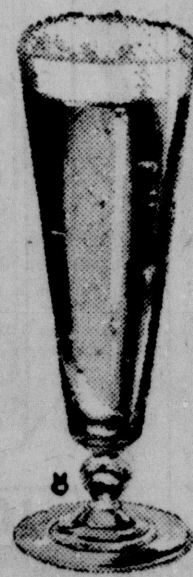

Bauer was named as the assailant by Jones' brother, Leonard, police reported.

Bauer told a newsman: "I definitely didn't hit any one."

Tries Tough Interview; Poor Results

By BOB THOMAS

MEXICO CITY (AP)—This is the era of the tough interview so I decided to try one out on Errol Flynn, long-time darling of the scandal sheets.

There was only one trouble—Flynn was to darned charming. As dashing and fit as ever, Flynn was sipping a rum and pineapple juice drink called a Franco ("no political significance") at the Mexico City Country Club. He was finishing his last day's work on "The Sun Also Rises" at the nearby Churubusco Studios.

I tossed him a dilly: Did the scandal of his sex-on-the-yacht trial hurt his career?

"Not at all," he said genially. "The reason that it didn't is that most of the public saw nothing wrong. Any man would have reacted the same way in the same circumstances."

"The whole thing was so normal that in France they couldn't figure out what all the fuss was about."

(A Monte Carlo, Monaco, judge cleared Flynn of a rape charge in connection with the alleged visit of a 15-year-old French girl aboard his yacht in August 1949.)

I tried another tack. With Flynn here and his wife Patricia Wyndemore in Spain, the gossip columnists have reported they are separated by more than geography.

"Dear me, I suppose they have to write about something," he commented airily. "I'm not going to knock their racket. As a matter of fact, I just sent Pat a Mother's Day cable last night. I wish I could remember what I said. I was out on the town and I'm afraid the message was a bit bawdy."

How about this: Is he still in the red?

"Oddly enough, no," he said. "By a strange set of circumstances, I am in the black. The business with Uncle Sam was cleared up a couple of years ago, and I've recovered from the 'William Tell' fiasco, which cost me a big chunk and was never finished."

"This being solvent can be a bother, really, when I try to discourage Pat on a purchase, she says, 'Come on, I know you're in the black.'"

"I gave up the Mike Wallace routine and told Flynn that we missed him and his flare for creating headlines in Hollywood."

"I may be coming back," he sighed. "You know how women are—they go through life collecting items like shoes and things and they want a place to put them. I suppose it's the least I can do to provide Pat the closet space."

Now they are living aboard the 125-foot Flynn schooner in Spain. That's the only place he can afford to keep it, he said, because Spanish crews are cheap.

New University

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adventist University has been chosen as the name of the new Seventh-day Adventist University to be located in the Washington area. Ernest D. Dick, former president of the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary, will be president. The seminary will become one of two major schools of the new institution.

Work will begin on the new campus as soon as a decision is made on location, officials say.

Nuts Flavor Rich Hungarian Dessert

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Many Hungarian families now in this country have brought with them treasured recipes for torten. These famous desserts are related to the cake family although they use little or no flour. Usually torten are made in round layers and richly filled and frosted.

The almonds that help make the base of the following torte may be put through a rotary-type hand-operated nut grater or they may be ground in a food chopper. Now that nutmeats are widely distributed in 5-ounce cans, each holding a convenient cupful, you can have them on hand on your kitchen shelves. Vacuum-packed assures freshness.

CHOCOLATE ALMOND TORTE

Ingredients: One 5-ounce can (1 cup) blanched almonds, 8 eggs (separated), 1 cup sugar, 1 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate pieces, 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs. Filling and Frosting.

Method: Set aside 24 of the almonds for the garnish. Put remaining nuts through a rotary-type hand-operated nut grater or through a food chopper using the fine blade. With rotary beater (hand or electric), beat together the egg yolks and sugar until thick and lemon-colored. Measure 3/4 cup of the chocolate pieces and melt over hot, not boiling, water; stir into egg-yolk mixture with bread crumbs and grated almonds. With clean rotary beater (hand or electric) beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; fold into almond mixture.

Turn into 3 round layercake pans (each 8 inches in diameter); prepare pans by greasing bottoms, lining bottoms with waxed paper and greasing paper. Bake in slow (325 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes, or until torten surfaces spring back when touched lightly. Turn out on cooling racks and strip off paper. For garnish, melt remaining (1/4 cup) chocolate pieces over hot, not boiling, water. Dip one end of each of the 24 almonds reserved for the garnish into the chocolate and place on waxed paper; refrigerate to set. (Any melted chocolate leftover may be refrigerated in a tightly-covered container, then melted and used another time.) Put cake together with Filling and Frosting; insert almonds (chocolate-dipped ends down) in circles in top of cake. Makes 10 servings.

FILLING AND FROSTING

Ingredients: 1/2 cup apricot preserves, rum or brandy flavoring, 1 1/2 cups heavy cream, 2 teaspoons instant coffee, sugar. Method: Stir the rum or brandy flavoring (to taste) into the apricot preserves. Add the instant coffee to the cream; with rotary beater (hand or electric) beat cream until almost stiff. Gradually beat in sugar to taste—from 1 to 5 tablespoons. Spread apricot preserves over top of 2 layers of the cool cake; top with some of the whipped cream; put together. Top with third layer and spread with remaining cream.

TESTING NOTE

When we prepared and served this torte it was much enjoyed by all our tasters. We made the cake layers in the morning, cooled them and then covered them tightly.

Green Ridge Church Women Hold Meeting

The Green Ridge Presbyterian Womens Association held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, May 9, at the church, with the Mariam Circle as hostesses for the contributive dinner which was served at noon.

The president, Mrs. Earl Hinken, conducted an executive meeting at 1:30. Mrs. Hinken announced the Synodical meeting that will be held at Park College, at Parkville, Mo., June 5, 6 and 7. She hopes to attend as a delegate.

Mrs. Hinken read the menu for the Green Ridge Chamber of Commerce banquet which was approved. The banquet will be held May 24, at 8 p.m. The following committee was appointed to plan the banquet: General chairman, Mrs. Hinken, Mrs. Mattie Myers, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mrs. A. M. Kendrick, Mrs. J. M. Palmer and Mrs. Glen Morrow.

Mrs. Nannie Sims was appointed chairman of the redecorating committee to have charge of redecorating the auditorium of the church.

Mrs. L. H. Wadleigh was in charge of the program, "Christ's Way Through All Our Days". The program was in honor of some of the older women who had worked for years in the churches, especially former members who had moved to other communities. The following guests were recognized, Mrs. Wilford Acker, who presented a very interesting talk, Mrs. Opal Goering, who also spoke of her work in the church at Green Ridge, Mrs. Hazel Licklider, Mrs. Florence Walkup, Mrs. Cindy Proctor and Mrs. Alma Johnson who also talked of her work in years past in the churches of Green Ridge all of Sedalia.

Mrs. Hinken led the prayer service for mission workers on both National and Foreign fields of service.

Mrs. W. H. Weller told a very interesting story, "Tobiah Tucker, The Tucker Tarhills".

The music department of the Green Ridge School presented its annual Spring Festival at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, May 7.

When you add dry mustard to mayonnaise or French dressing, prepare the dressing ahead of time. The bitter flavor of mustard, sometimes detected when a dressing is first made, will dissipate after some hours.

Chicken Dish Has an Italian Twist

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Looking for a new chicken dish? Then you might like to try this casserole of chicken, spaghetti and tomato sauce.

Apart from the poultry, the makings for this dish can be right on your pantry shelf because the recipe utilizes a package of spaghetti dinner with its pasta, sauce and grated cheese.

We tried this recipe adding tomato juice to the sauce; another time we added cooking sherry. We like both additions — so take your choice!

Chicken and Spaghetti Casserole

Ingredients: 1 broiler-fryer (2½ pounds ready-to-cook weight), 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, ½ teaspoon crushed dried oregano, ¼ cup olive oil, 1 package spaghetti dinner (containing spaghetti and meatless mushroom sauce and grated cheese), ½ cup tomato juice.

Method: Have chicken cut so there are 2 pieces of breast, 2 wings, 2 drumsticks, 2 second joints and 4 pieces of bony back. Mix salt, pepper to taste and oregano and rub into chicken pieces. Brown chicken thoroughly in 10- or 12-inch skillet in hot oil. Cook spaghetti according to package directions, but undercook slightly because it will be put into the oven.

Add tomato juice to chicken drippings in skillet along with the mushroom sauce from the package; stir over low heat with wooden spoon to get up any browned particles. Turn spaghetti into greased 2-quart casserole and mix with most of the sauce. Arrange browned chicken over spaghetti; pour remaining sauce over chicken. Sprinkle with grated cheese from the package. Cover and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until chicken is tender — 45 minutes to 1 hour. Makes 4 servings.

QUICK TRICKS

Prepared tomato spaghetti sauce is convenient to have on hand for jiffy dishes. Here are suggestions for using the meatless mushroom variety of sauce.

1. Heat the sauce and spoon into shirred egg dishes. Break 1 or 2 eggs into each dish. Sprinkle well with grated Parmesan or Romano cheese. Bake in a slow (325 degrees) oven until eggs are as set as desired.

2. Add drained chunks of tuna fish to the sauce and heat; serve with spaghetti.

3. Cube leftover roast beef and add to the sauce; heat and serve over steamed rice.

4. Sauce may be spooned over fish fillets or steaks that are to be baked. Or the sauce may be heated separately and served with broiled fillets or steaks.

5. Heat the sauce and serve with meat loaf. Or add some of the sauce to the meat mixture when you are preparing the loaf.

6. Serve the heated sauce over sliced hard-cooked eggs or with a puffy omelet.

Dean Starts Annual Hunt for Law Group

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dean David E. Snodgrass of the Hastings College of Law has departed for New York on his annual talent scouting for his faculty's "65 Club."

The Hastings 65 Club, composed of eminent law professors compelled to retire at other schools, has been rated "the strongest law faculty in the country" by Roscoe Pound, former Harvard law dean.

Snodgrass said he will confer with professors scheduled for compulsory retirement soon from various top Eastern law schools.

Kicks Car for Revenge But Picks Wrong One

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Don Murry told police he wasn't mad at the 1937 convertible they found him kicking. He was sore at its owner.

Murry, 21, claimed the owner of the car had beaten him up. Only trouble was — Murry had the wrong car. It belonged to a man he didn't even know.

The car suffered body damage, smashed tail lights and broken windows. Murry was held in $500 bail on a charge of malicious mischief.

Man Blames Hiccups For Trouble on Jobs

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—David Gantt, 42, up before a federal judge on a bootleg booze-running charge, pleaded: "I just can't hold a job on account of the hiccups. I go all to pieces."

It has been like that for years, Gantt said, adding that that anything he tackled — say helping out in a garage, the closest to a steady job he could remember — would be interrupted so much he just had to quit.

Gantt was arrested here some time ago by agents of the federal alcohol tax unit, who testified he had driven in from Greensboro, N. C., with 120 gallons of raw alcohol aboard.

The judge fined Gantt $100 and sentenced him to a year in jail. Not a single hiccup was heard at the hearing.

Negro Graduates In Tennessee With 88 Whites

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—A Negro will receive his diploma together with 88 white seniors in commencement exercises Friday at Clinton High School, center of recent racial disorders.

He is 17-year-old Bobby Cain, one of 12 Negroes admitted to the school Aug. 27.

Coincidentally, Friday will be the third anniversary of the U. S. Supreme Court decision banning segregated public schools. This ban resulted in a federal court order admitting Negroes to the previously all-white Clinton school.

The order climaxed five years of litigation, and made Clinton High the first state-supported school in Tennessee to mix the races.

Seven of the Negroes, including Bobby, still are enrolled, despite violence and other demonstrations against the integration.

Asked how it feels to get through the year and make a little history, Bobby, 17, replied: "Well, I'm just glad to graduate. That's about the only way I feel."

"It's been a rough year," Bobby told a newsman, and he wouldn't want to repeat it. But when asked if he were sorry that he'd gone to the integrated school, he said, "No."

"I plan to work this summer and then go to Al State (a state Negro university at Nashville)," Bobby said. "I plan to take social studies or something like that."

Police Candidate Stretches to Qualify

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—William E. McClaran had to do a long stretch before he was accepted on the police force.

The 21-year-old candidate led 20 applicants in the written tests but was rejected because he was a quarter-inch under the 5-foot-10 minimum height.

He said he exercised at a health clinic to stretch his vertebrae, had his sister and brother-in-law stretch him on a homemade rack and hung from an overhead pipe with weight tied to his waist.

He made the minimum height after two days of exercising.

House Agricultural Group Studies High Cost of Living, Low Return to Farmer

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON —(NEA)— Congress has started to investigate the high cost of living for everyone and low returns to the farmer.

A House Agricultural subcommittee is asking Department of Agriculture marketing experts about the growing influence of the supermarket on the American food budget. They want to know what's in those pretty packages with fetching premiums and streamlined cartons with no work for mother.

How much is food for the family and how much is expensive frills? Omer W. Herrmann, deputy administrator of Agricultural Marketing Service, gave one answer.

"Customers are more and more being attracted by convenience and service," he testified. "Under such circumstances retailers, in particular, look for new promotional techniques."

Earl L. Butz, assistant Secretary of Agriculture, addressing a canners group, hinted why victuals stuffed with built-in services and "improved merchandising techniques" cost more.

"The essence of self-service retailing is that products must sell themselves," Butz explained. "As a result, vast expenditures for advertising and promotion have become necessary to make consumers product and brand conscious."

Marketing researchers warn that marketing costs will make up an increasing share of the consumer's food dollar.

Urban and suburban families with an average income will spend about $500 more for food this year than 10 years ago. The House committee wants to know how much more essential food per extra dollar spent will stick to our kids' ribs and how much will go for processing, promoting and trading stamps.

The men who grow, catch or herd the food for the family dinner plate will get only $45 of that $500 ante. Economists predict the farmer's share will continue to diminish. In 1955, for example, it was less than in any year since the early 30's.

About $400 of that inflated food budget will go to processors, transportation people, packers, canners and middlemen. A big hunk will be grabbed by advertising and motivational research experts, TV stars and publicity boys.

All these people contribute to your higher standard of living. But you can't eat them.

Government economists report that in 1955, city families were spending on an average $32 a week to feed their families. That was $6 more than in 1948. Today's figure is higher.

The fact that families have increased their food expenditures by about 25 per cent indicates what is sometimes referred to as "upgrading" of the diet—either by use of more expensive foods or inclusion of services, such as precooking, they report.

This upgrading—extra services and fancier processing—has added six billion dollars a year to cost of marketing food.

This should indicate that today we are better fed in terms of our nutritional requirements.

But the Nutrition Education Conference in Washington last month revealed that although our food expenditures for urban families had increased one-fourth between 1948 and 1955, diet improvement had not kept pace despite the 6,000 items on supermarket shelves.

The conference, piloted by Agriculture's Institute of Home Economics, and based on the official household food consumption survey of 1955, concluded: Regardless of fatter take home pay envelopes and the multiplication of new canned and frozen foods, the country as a whole needs better diets.

In 1930, during the depression, studies disclosed that one-third of our family diets were poor or very poor. By 1948 the number dropped to one out of 10.

The bread and flour enrichment program, started at the time of the National Nutritional Conference for Defense in 1941, was a big improvement factor. Better nutritional education in schools and through newspaper and magazine

Deliveryman Leaves Money With Groceries

DALLAS (AP)—Deliveryman Joe Cicero dropped off some groceries at a home while on his way to the bank with a $250 deposit. Police were called after he discovered he had tucked the bank bag in the grocery order and the housewife refused to return the money. Detectives found the bank bag, stuffed with the money, in a backyard hutch between two gray rabbits. The housewife was arrested on a charge of theft.

Tries to Sell Woman Her Own Automobile

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Bona Pfeifer decided to trade her car in on a later model. An over-eager salesman showed her several cars. None pleased her. As she was about to leave he said he had just remembered a 1949 auto that had been turned in and was parked on the street.

The salesman got a ring of keys, went to the curb and began to point out the good features of the car. But none of his keys would open the car door. He excused himself and went to the office. Mrs. Pfeifer unlocked the car, got in and drove away. Why not? It was hers.

food pages was another. The biggest, however, was more spending money.

But the trend toward better diets slowed down after 1948. Agricultural Research stresses that there has been relatively little nutritional improvement since 1948.

Concert Group Drive Proves Successful

The Community Concert Association ended a successful drive with an increase in membership.

Gilbert Jones, president, conducted a short business meeting at the close of the drive to select the remaining artists for the 1937-38 season.

After repeated requests to have three outstanding programs, it was decided to engage the very popular Gotham Trio, which is considered four concerts in one, as they appear in solo and ensemble, in addition to the already booked Nadine Conner and The Concertmen.

The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: president, Gilbert V. Jones; vice-president, Mrs. Al Miles; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Mason; treasurer, Lloyd Knox; and publicity, Mrs. Russell E. Rhoads.

The new board members who were elected at the last concert were introduced—Pinkney Miller, Miss Mabel DeWitt, Lawrence J. Brown and Miss Eva Evans.

The holdover board members are Mrs. Henry Salveter, Russell Maag, Mrs. Everett White, Mrs. D. P. Dyer, Oscar DeWolf, Mrs. James Jolly, George Routsong, Mrs. Herbert Mason, Mrs. E. F. Yancey, member emeritus, and Ralph Carrel, ex-officio.

Mr. and Mrs. Harms Get Civic Club Award

Remodeling For Knob Noster Bank

Work is underway on the remodeling of an addition to the Bank of Knob Noster in which the main banking business will be conducted. The building adjoins the present bank on State Street, and the remodeling is expected to be completed within 30 days.

The building was purchased a year ago by the bank from J. W. Sibert.

Remodeling will include a new front, new floor and ceiling, and will provide two private offices, a directors' room and two coupon booths for customers.

The bookkeeping department will occupy the present bank building when remodeling is completed.

A. C. Bass of Warrensburg is president of the bank.

Honor Knob Noster Cashier of Bank

Frank Shepherd, cashier of the Bank of Knob Noster, was honored at the meeting of the Missouri Bankers Association at the Hotel Muehlebach in Kansas City because of his 50 years of banking experience.

Mr. Shepherd went to Kansas City Sunday for the annual meeting.

A breakfast for members with 50 years in banking was held as a part of the association's program and Mr. Shepherd was honored at that time.

Kid Stuff

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP) — Atomic science, until now the almost exclusive domain of higher echelon physicists, will be brought out of the intellectual stratosphere next year with the introduction at Bellaire High School of a scheduled course in the subject.

BECAUSE...

1 Your gas furnace will last much longer. The small amount of heat from the pilot light evaporates moisture and prevents rusting within the furnace.

2 Heat is instantly available when you want it during damp and cold summer days.

3 Simply move the thermostat to the lowest possible setting. This will assure no delay in starting your furnace next fall.

The cost of burning your pilot light amounts to only a few pennies a month. The advantages in longer life for your furnace and instant gas heat more than offset this small cost.

Gas has become extremely popular as a heating fuel. Due to the concerted demand for furnace lighting service on the first cold fall day, it has become impossible for the Missouri Public Service Company to provide prompt service.
